"The family of James Kain, then forty-six years old, included his aged father also named James, his mother, his wife, Katherine, his three sons, Daniel, John and Thomas, and three daughters, Mary or Polly, Elizabeth and Sarah. James Kain had done some service in Revolutionary days with the militia of Lancaster, his Pennsylvania home. His sons, Daniel and John, were with Wayne's Army, from which it may be guessed that James, Daniel and John Kain, Bricker, Bunton, and Snider had many stories to trade when they happened to gather round the cabin fires of those first winter days in the wild woods twenty miles away from Paxton's or the sorrowful people at Covalt's."

THE KAIN FAMILY

Much pleasant mention has been made of James Kain and his children as the first family to make a home in the East Fork part of the Little Miami river. James Kain, of Scotch-Irish origin, was born February 13, 1749, in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. The maiden name of his wife, Catherine, seems lost. Their eldest child, Daniel, was born May 7, 1773. John was born September 1, 1776; Mary, June 5, 1783, and Sarah, November 5, 1787. This family left Lancaster county, and, like others westward bound at that time, stopped, because of Indian troubles, at Old Fort Red Stone, where they raised a crop. They boated down the Ohio the next spring to Columbia, where their youngest son, Thomas, was born, July 2, 1790. After 1792 they moved out to Mercersburg, or Newtown In 1795 James Kain contracted with General Lytle to clear the "Big Field" as told in our general history. In 1796 the family moved out to Williamsburg and built their cabins on Lot No. 43, by the "Surveyor's Camp," and there began Kain's Tavern, the most noted stopping place in pioneer times between Cinninnati and Chillicothe. Through all the migration from Lancaster they brought a tall clock, now owned by Mrs. Estelle Norris Ochiltree, of Connersville, Ind., and a set of stone for a horse mill, now probably owned by Enoch W. Smith, in Williamsburg. These articles suggest a more than usual pioneer outfit. James Kain was appointed by the Hamilton county court as supervisor of the road to Chillicothe, and he probably acted under that authority in cutting the "Dug Way" as told on other pages. He was elected coroner of Old Clermont. There is good tradition that he brought his parents, also named James and Catherine, to Willismasburg. But there is [illegible] energetic, useful, big-hearted [illegible] given for his [illegible] small, dark-eyed and [illegible] wife, of German descent. He died April 10, 1815, and is buried in Williamsburg cemetery, near all his children, except Thomas and the younger daughter, Elizabeth, who married Sergeant Daniel Campbell, killed in the battle of Brownstown in 1812. She then married Samuel Cade and wnnt farther west. Mary, called Polly, married James Perrine, on July 4, 1804, and their daughter, Catherine, married John Jamieson, whence that family in Batavia mentioned on other pages. Sarah Kain married Stephen Smith, captain of the second company from Williamsburg in the War of 1812. Captain Smith, born October 20, 1781, was one of the nine children of Israel Smith, born December 15, 1745, and Catherine Smith (not akin), born June 13, 1756, who brought their cheldren, born at Elizabethtown, N. J., and first settled at Point Pleasant. Among the children of Captain and Sarah Kain Smith, who also had nine, were: Sarah, wife of Adam Snell Walker, the parnnts of Oliver E. Walker, the father of Spencer Walker; Mary, the wife of William Walker, parents of L. G. Walker, the father of Mrs John C. Fuhr; and Eliza the wife of Philip Chatterton, all three elsewhere sketched in this work.

Daniel, eldest son of James Kain, married Mary Hutchinson, who died leaving Mary, James and Joseph. Mary married Israel Foster and was the mother of Bishop R. S. Foster, as told in our history. Joseph, born September 10, 1802, became the driver of one of the tri-weekly stages to and from Chillicothe to Cincinnati. As he came down the road within a few miles of Williamsburg, the four [illegible] to swing and flap across the road. [illegible] control, Joseph was thrown from his place early on Thursday morning, August 28, 1828, and instantly killed.

On December 1, 1805, Daniel Kain, for second wife, married Eleanor, a sister of his future son-in-law, Israel, children of Thomas and Nancy Trigg Foster, mentioned in the account of the Old Stone Jail. Nancy Trigg was a part in the ancestry of scores of people named in this publication, yet, living nearly a century, she died as recently as July 2, 1855. The children of Daniel and Eleanor Kain were William L. married to Mary West, Henry C. married to Rebecca Homan, Thomas, Catherine married to Samuel Ellis, Sarah married to Dr. William Gage, Eliza married to Rev. John Miller, Paulina married to George Davison, and Manora married to Samuel G. Peterson. Thomas, badly crippled, was still a very useful pioneer teacher. Samuel and Catherine Ellis were the parents of Thomas Kain Ellis, elsewhere sketched. Eleanor Kain was born March 14, 1782, and died July 25, 1842.

Daniel Kain was a soldier in Wayne's victorious army; was commissioned a captain in 1801, by governor St. Clair; was a major in active service in the war of 1812; and then a colonel of militia, but was called "major", the rank in actual war. He was sheriff of the county, a justice of the peace for twenty-four years and postmaster from 1839 till his death, March 11, 1843. He was a zealous Methodist, a faithful Mason and vice-president of the first temperance convention held in Brown and Clermont. In personal appearance he was tall, dark, and fine looking, with a martial air. He was held in a high respect, still surviving.

John, the second son of James Kain, was married on May 1, 1797, to Elizabeth Raper, who was born April 6, 17[illegible], and died March 17, 1839. She was the oldest daughter of Leonard Raper, the British Revolutionary soldier, sketched in our history. Leonard Raper was born in England, March 19, 1750, and well educated in London. His wife, Temperance Holly, was born in Wales, November 22, 1764, and died November 28, 1841. The sons of Leonard and Temperance Raper were Samuel, Joseph, Holly and William H., and the daughters were Elizabeth, Margaret, Sarah and Mary. Margaret married John Randall, Mary married James Kain, Jr., and Sarah married Lieutenant Thomas Foster. William H. was the noted Methodist minister. After serving as a sergeant in Captain Boersttler's company, in which his brother, Samuel Raper, was first corporal, in the War of 1812, Holly served four terms as sheriff of Clermont county. Joseph raised a family and died on the home farm. Samuel married Mary Jones, of a New Jersey family, and died on his farm a mile and a half south of Bethel, leaving the reputation of a strong minded man worthy of his ancestry. His daughter, Sarah, who was born January 20, 1822, and died November 22, 1896, was married April 25, 1839, to Robert Blair who was born July 22, 1816, and died September 8, 1879. Robert was the son of John Blair, who married Antis, a daughter of David and Nancy Vaughan White, elsewhere sketched. The children of Robert and Sarah Raper Blair are Augustus C., Judith, Elizabeth and Katherine. Of these Elizabeth married Albion T. Kain, elsewhere sketched.

the children [illegible] Margaret, Thomas, [illegible], [illegible], Daniel, [illegible], John Wesley, Caroline and [illegible]. [illegible] Elizabeth, who was born march12, 1816, and died November 5, [illegible], was married October 15, 1835, to Lewis Ellis, who are mentioned in the sketch of Mrs. Estelle N. Ochiltree. John Wesley Kain was born November 7, 1819, and on August 27, 1840, was married to Almira Hull, a daughter of Thomas and mary Wilson Hull, who came from Pennsylvania, where he had been a soldier in the War of 1812. The children of John Wesley and Almira Kain are Luther, Lorisa and Albion T. Lorisa is the wife of Charles P. Chatterton, sketched on other pages.

John Kain was a soldier with his brother, Daniel, in Wayne's army. He was on much duty for the county of Old Clermont, and was county treasurer seven years. He was also a colonel of the militia. After his father's death he built the tavern at the northwest corner of Main and Third streets, in Williamsburg, which was popular till his death, February 6, 1846, and continued so under the management of his youngest son, John wesley Kain, until his death, April 4, [illegible]. The house was the scene of much historic action, of which the most dramatic was its occupation as the headquarters of General John Morgan, on July 14 and 15, 1863, in his famous Northern raid. In person John Kain was a dark-eyed, swarthy, broad-shouldered and stern visaged man, who tolerated no loitering about his inn. Yet he was sternly kind, and rarely devoted to friends. Masonry was his chief ideal. From his initiation in the old jury room, April 19, 1819, to his last attendance, April 18, 1845, just twenty-six years, Clermont Social Lodge held 415 meetings, at which he was present 383 times. Besides other offices, he was elected treasurer for [illegible] of anti-masonic [illegible], [illegible] of the [illegible] meetings of his lodge, and the records of committee work show that his example of punctual, efficient, [illegible] and prudent ways was as a corner stone for the work of the craft".

Thomas, the youngest son of James Kain, on March 1, 1812, was married to mary Herbert, who was born in Trenton, N. J., April 9, 1794, and died November 5, 1864. She was a daughter of James Herbert, who as the keeper, was then residing in the stone jail. Some four weeks after his marriage Thomas Kain answered the first call for the War of 1812 as first lieutenant of Captain Boersttler's Rifle Company. After the captain was killed at the battle of Brownstown, Lieutenant Kain was promoted to be captain. when Batavia was fixed as the new county seat, in 1824, Captain Kain who had come to be colonel of militia, moved, and became a noted innkeeper and was highly esteemed in Methodist, Masonic and social relations until his death, on August 17, 1856. The children of Colonel Thomas and mary Herbert Kain were, as named and married, as follows: James Herbert Kain to Margaret B. Ellis. John Washington Kain to Mary Lukens, and then to Caroline Moore. Daniel D. Kain to Jane Tate. Caroline Kain. william Milton Kain to Eliza J. Gerard, and then to Eliza Robinson. Almira Kain to David J. Clossin. Matilda Caroline Kain to william Baum. Sarah Catherine Kain to Jesse Ellis. George Forman Kain. Charles Henry Kain to Laura Perrine Jamieson. Mary Herbert, the mother of these eleven children, was a daughter of James Herbert, who was born June 6, 1765, and died March 19, 1822, and was married July 14, [illegible], to Sarah Hendrickson, who was born February 9, 1772, and died July 22, 1828.

HUSBAND Stephen D. ane ELLIS-389 Yr of Birth 1827

HUSBAND - Stephen D. ELLIS-389

Stephen D. Ellis is the son of George Ellis and Nancy McAdams. He was in their household at the time of the 1850 census. The 1860 Census for Batavia Township, Clermont Co., OH indicates on household #877 that: Stephen D. Ellis, 33 white male was a Cooper, born in Ohio. His wife at that time was Mary E. Farquar whom he married 28 Aug 1856. Children were listed as Alonzo Ellis, age 3, John W., age 1, and Randolph, age 13.

We believe that
Randolph is Stephen's son by the previous marriage to Lucinda Morgan, daughter of John and Rebecca Morgan, who died 6 Jun 1849 after giving birth to a daughter. A Lucinda Ellis was found in the 1860 Census in the household of Rebecca and Zadoc (?John) Morgan. She was listed at age 9, but probably was age 11. Lucinda Ellis died at age 15.

Record # 06043 Clermont Cou, OH Marriages, pg 150 shows Ellis,Steven D, age 26 as having married Mariah Raper, age 24 on 18 Jan 1852 by J.M. Hutchinson, J.P. It is possible that (after Lucinda Morgan died and before he married Mary E. Farquar) Stephen D. Ellis married Mariah Raper. More research is necessary!

WIFE - Lucinda MORGAN-384

Lucinda Morgan, daughter of John and Rebecca Morgan, is the first wife of Stephen D. Ellis, married 31 Jan 1847. Her son, Randolph was born 3 Sep 1847, and she died 6 Jan 1849 after giving birth to a daughter, Lucinda ELLIS. Documents to prove these facts: Williamsburg Cemetery Records copied b;y [Beech Forest Chapter, DAR 1951 FHC film #0862016 Vol.I.

CHILD 1 - Randolph ELLIS-253

1860 Federal Census of Batavia Township, Clermont Co., Ohio shows Randolph in the following family: Household #877. Stephen D. Ellis, age 33, Cooper, born Ohio; Mary E. Ellis, age 28, b. Ohio; Alonzo Ellis, age 3, b. Ohio; John W. Ellis, age 1, b. Ohio; Randolph Ellis, age 13, b. Ohio.

Being listed last in this family might indicate that the Women, Mary is his step-mother who listed her two children first. On 31 Jan 1847,Stephen D.Ellis married 1) Lucinda Morgan, daughter of John Morgan and Rebecca. Lucinda died 6 Jun 1849, probably after giving birth to daughter, Lucinda Ellis who was listed with a Zadoc Morgan and his wife Rebecca in the 1860 census for Williamsburg township.

A search of Civil War Records for Roster of Ohio Troops showed a Randolph Ellis serving in Company H, 175th O.V.I. and being transferred to Co.F. 189th O.V.I. mustering out of Company F with the company on 28 Sep 1865.

On 21 Jun 1990, copies of military records for Randolph Ellis were mailed. The following information is contained in the records: ELLIS , age 18, was listed on the Muster-in Roll for the 175th Regiment, Ohio Infantry as a Private . The roll dated 13 October, 1864 at Camp Dennison. He joined for duty and enrolled on 11 Oct,1864 at Camp Dennison. His volunteer enrollment was credited to Miami Township, Clermont Co.,Ohio,District 6. These records indicate E Company,175 Regiment. On 17 Oct 1864 and again on 29 October, he was appointed Musician. He served H Company from Dec 1864 to May 1865 on duty at Columbia, Tenn. His physical description was: height 5 ft. 5 in.; complexion dark; eyes hazel; hair black. On 12 July, 1865 he was transferred to Co. F. 189 Reg. OVI in Huntsville, Ala. At the time of the transfer, or mustering out of Co.H, 175th Reg. He was due pay from Enlistment...$66.66 less $7.18 for clothing and was "to be charged with two drums complete lost through negligence."

HUSBAND Stephen D. alt ELLIS-389 Yr of Birth 1827 WIFE Lucinda MORGAN-384 Yr of Birth

!The first pension application is dated 4 May, 1891. The second, dated 24 Novemberl,1892 states that Randolph Ellis is age 46. and is entitled to a monthly pension of $6.00 per month from the Colu7mbus pension Agency, Certificate # 790.783; by reason of disability from Rheumatism incured in military service of the U.S. An increase of disability pension was requested because of heart disease sthe sequences of said disabilty. The pension was $24.00 on the 25th of November, 1912, and was raised to $30.,he being 66 years of hage, having been born 3 Sept.,1846.

There is some discrepency found in the following affidavits regarding age.

On 13 Aug 1990, Pension records for Randolph ELLIS were mailed. These included the following information. In the State of Ohio, County of Clermont, on 24 August, 1899, Randolph ELLIS, age 41 (?) declares he is the identical Randolph ELLIS who was enrolled on the 11th day of Oct.,1864 to Co.H,175th regiment of Ohio Infantry Volunteer, commanded by Capt. J.F.Hill, and was honorably discharged at Columbus,OH on 28 Sep.,1865. That his personal description is as follows: Age 17,height 5 ft. 7 in; complexion dark; hair black; eyes hazel. That while a member of the organization aforesaid, in the service and in the line of duty at Nashville, Tenn., about Nov.1864 was disabled from performing military serrvice by reason of Rheumatism contracted from exposure while on march from Columbia,Tenn. to Nashville,Tenn. in the month of Oct. 1864. Applicant further says that while at Columbia, Tenn. in the latter part of October and while in the line of duty he took jaundice. that he was sick for several weeks, that disease of the kidneys followed said disease, the same being the sequence of the jaundice. That he still suffers with said diseases of Rhumatism and kidney disease. That he was not treated in hospitals, but was treated at his quarters. Since leaving the service this applicant resided in Clermont County,OH, and his occupation has been that of a chair maker. He is now partially disabled. He appoints with full power of substitution and revocation J.H. Hall of Monterey, OH, his true and lawful attorney to prosecute his claim. The files include a general affidavit from his former Captain, J.F. Hill, and one from his employer, Mr. S.D. Mount. both stating that he had been a rugged individual prior to service, and ailing ever since his discharge from service. His family MD.,Dr. Sharp had died before this affidavit, and the present MD.,Redrow requested that the testimony of the other witnesses be accepted.

On 22 May, 1914, Lulu McAdams, age 36, a resident of Williamsburg, Clermont, OH filed an application for Reimbursement with the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, DC on behalf of Randolph Ellis, Certificate No. 790783. We are assuming that this is his daughter identified on page 36 1 325/380 of the 1880 Census, Williamsburg Village, Clermont Co.

CHILD 2 - Lucinda ELLIS-388

Lucinda Ellis was found in the 1860 census for Williamsburg Township, Clermont, OH. She was living with Zadoc (?john) and Rebecca Morgan. She is believed to be a sister of Randolph Ellis, both being children of Stephen D. Ellis and Lucinda Morgan. Their mother died 6 Jan 1849 and the children were sent to live in the home of relatives. In 1860 Randolph was living with his father and his ~~second~~ 3RD wife, Mary E.Farquar and their two children, Alonzo, age 3 and John W., age 1, but Lucinda remains in the home of her grandparents.
Vol. 1 Index of Cemetery Inscriptions copied by the Beech Chapter DAR indicated that Lucinda, age 15 is buried in the Williamsburg Cemetery.

Dear Jan,

My apology for taking 10 months to answer your letter of 26 November, 1987. It arrived just before the busy Christmas season and was set on my desk to do later. Little did I know that my husband, Ellis Roth Romer, would become seriously ill with emphysema and put life on hold. He is doing much, much better. When I moved my desk and computer out of the bedroom this week, I discovered your unanswered letter along with a few others.

Enclosed are two pedigree charts, one for my mother in law, Emma Catherine Ellis, and the other for Steven D. Ellis. There is a descendancy chart with my husband's ancestors highlighted, and two family group sheets, one for each of Stephen D. Ellis's marriages. To my knowledge, he had no children by Mariah Raper, his third wife.

I have yet to obtain documentation that Randolph is indeed the son of Stephen Dahl Ellis and Lucinda Morgan. I suppose that I need to search church records, but I do not know which ones or where.

Any help you can give me will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mary Catherine

RESEARCH REPORT NO. I--from SCHARF, J. Thomas "HISTORY of WESTERN MARYLAND"-Baltimore Regional Pub. Co.,1968-reprint from original Vol. pub. 1882.

VOL. I--pp 501-504" In 1742 over 200 inhabitants of area bet Monocacy Riv & Seneca Cr in Maryland, sent a petition to the Assembly requesting that all areas North of the Great Senea Run be separated from "Prince George's Parish" & become "ALL SAINTS' PARISH" Acted upon favorably-new Parish became effective 23 Nov 1742. Territory within its bounds comprised all of present FREDERICK COUNTY, western pt of MONTGOMERY CO, pts/o CARROLL WASHINGTON, ALLEGHANY & GARRETT Cos. Among signers of petition: SAMUEL ELLIS, WILLIAM ELLIS, JOHN VEATCH (b 1695) JAMES VEATCH(b. 1696)--191 signers inc: PRATHERS, SWEARINGENS, SHEPHERDS & PLUMMERS. In 1756-7 a petition by some parishioners of ALL SAINTS' PARISH of FREDERICK CO sent to Assembly requesting another new Parish be formed in area south of MONOCACY RIVER--Among 199 names listed by Scharf pp 503-4 are:
JOHN VEATCH (b 1695)& his sons: THOMAS VEATCH,b 1736) & SILAS VEATCH (b 1731)
JAMES VEATCH, SR(b 1696)& his sons: JAMES VEATCH, JR(b 1725) BENJAMIN VEATCH(b 1729)
JEREMIAH VEATCH(b 1733) DANIEL VEATCH(b 1722), NINIAN VEATCH(b 1724) JOHN VEATCH(b1727
JAMES RIGGS, SR, JAMES RIGGS, JR; WM HARRIS, JOSEPH HARRIS, JOHN HARRIS
SAMUEL ELLIS; ZACHARIAH ELLIS; JAMES ELLIS (The dates on VEATCH names are from Gutheny "WE VIETCHES"--James Sr & John VEATCH were sons/o NATHAN & ANN (CLAGGETT)VEITCH.
An amendment to above petition inc 74 names collected in 1759 or 60, some are:
JOHN, SILAS, JEREMIAH, JAMES, DANIEL, BENJAMIN, NINIAN (& another s/o JAMES SR not in the 1756 petition: NATHAN VEATCH (b 1719) also Joseph HARRIS & SAMUEL, ZACHARIAH & JAMES ELLIS. 2 lists collected in 1750/s inc: BEALLS, WILSON, NORRIS, HAYES, WHITEHEAD PLUMMERS, MASTERS, a CAMPBELL, a SPRIGGS & many others. The act to divide ALL SAINTS PARISH was defeated & not actually accomplished until 1777 when the area became "SAINT PETER'S PARISH". In 1778 THOMAS VEATCH was a Trustee-new Parish,& purchaser of: "one acre of land of a tract called 'Friendship' from SAMUEL ELLIS, for a burial ground".It was the beg. of present MONOCACY CEM. at Beallsville, Md.(Mont. Co. Deeds,Bk A:Folio242)

From Guthrie,Lawrence R.(comp)"WE VEITCHES,VEATCHES.."p.162 -see for above data. NOTE The names of the ENGLISH CHURCH MEMBERS on the above petitions are from the actual documentsthat were examined & copied by both Scharf(bef 1880) & Guthrie(beg 1940) in Md. Hall of Records, Annapolis, Md. (I DO NOT CLAIM THIS IS "OUR" JAMES ELLIS who m MARY VEATCH--but I do say that this group of names bears some serious research). We know from the NATIONAL ARCHIVES-Rev. War Pension Appl. of JEREMIAH, SAMUEL & JESSE ELLIS that the family "removed" themselves from Frederick Co,Md. sometime in the year of 1775.

ELLIS-VEATCH

James Ellis was born in Wales in 1727, and died after 1785 at Redstone, Pa. He married on January 1, 1748, Mary Veatch, born in 1727 in Wales, died in 1799, at Aberdeen, Ohio. James and Mary (Veatch) Ellis came to this section from the neighborhood of Brownsville, on the Monongahela River, some sixty miles above Pittsburgh, in 1795. They had immigrated from Wales early in the 18th century and settled first Maryland, where, after spending a few years, emigrated to western Pennsylvania, where Mr. Ellis died sometime after the Revolutionary War. There is nothing to show that there were any daughters in the family.

James Ellis was a Commissioned Officer in the French and Indian Wars of 1755-1757. He also served in the Revolutionary War in Captain Adam Foulk's Company, Philadelphia Militia. He was called into actual service in July, 1777. James Ellis and Mary Veatch were the parents of six sons, all of whom served in the American Revolutionary War. They were:

Nathan Ellis, born in Wales, November 10, 1748, married Mary Walker in 1770. She was born December 1, 1752, at Redstone, Pa., and died December 1, 1812, at Aberdeen, Ohio. Nathan also died at Aberdeen in 1819.

Jeremiah Ellis, born January 21, 1752, died in 1851, married Nellie Harris.

Samuel Ellis, born October 22, 1754, died April 3, 1848, at Higginsport, Ohio, with burial in the Ellis-West Cemetery. He married Mary Fry in 1785. She was born April 11, 1760, and died June 13, 1837.

Jesse Ellis, born October 15, 1757, died in 1877.

Hezekiah Ellis was born in 1763.

James Ellis died on March 21, 1825. We have no records of his birth. He married in 1811, Sarah Heizer, born November 12, 1792, died December 1, 1880.

Nathan Ellis built the first home in what is known as Aberdeen, Ohio, and twenty-one years afterwards, laid out the town.

Samuel Ellis settled at Higginsport, Ohio, eighteen miles farther down the Ohio River.

James Ellis opened a farm near the present site of Georgetown, Ohio (Brown County).

Jeremiah Ellis bought lands near Bentonville, Adams County.

Hezekiah Ellis founded a home on the waters of Eagle Creek.

Jesse Ellis entered a tract on what is now known as Brook's Bar, along the Ohio River, three miles east of Aberdeen.

For more information on the Ellis Family, consult the book, "Historical Collections of Brown County, Ohio", published in 1969, by Carl N. Thompson.

ELLIS-WALKER

Nathan Ellis was the son of James and Mary (Veatch) Ellis and was born November 10, 1748, in Wales. He died in 1819 at Aberdeen, Ohio. In March, 1770, at Brownsville, Pa., he married Mary Walker, born December 1, 1752, at Redstone, Pa., and died December 1, 1812, at Aberdeen, Ohio. Their children were:

Margaret Ellis, born in 1771, married Lewis Sicily.

Mary Ellis, born in 1773, married Abraham Evans.

John Ellis, born June 15, 1777, died August 14, 1824, married on June 22, 1803, Keziah Brooks, born January 7, 1783, died July 17, 1853, the daughter of Thomas Brooks and Sarah Boone, the latter being the daughter of Samuel Boone, the brother of Daniel Boone. (See this family's history in "Historical Collections of Brown County, Ohio".)

Our Sabina could be granddaughter of
Thomas Brooks & Sarah Boone

Jeremiah Ellis, born April 2, 1779 (or December 8, 1780), at Redstone, Pa., died November 26, 1857, at Ellis' Landing, married on April 3, 1803, Nancy Anna Underwood, born November 1, 1782, in Virginia, died April 20, 1867, at Ellis' Landing, near Aberdeen, on the Ohio River.

Jesse Ellis, born February 14, 1782, died in 1877, married Sabina Brooks on September 17, 1810, in Mason County, Kentucky. She was born October 27, 1793, being the daughter of William Brooks and Elizabeth Grimes. She deceased May 14, 1882. Jesse served under Captain John Campbell in the War of 1812.

Samuel Ellis, born in 1784, died in 1870, married Elizabeth Power, born in 1788, died in 1845.

Nancy Ellis, born December 3, 1786, died December 14, 1861, married William Grimes, born in 1779, died February 18, 1843.

Nathan Ellis, born March 2, 1789, died November 9, 1867, buried in Ellis Grove Cemetery.

Hetty M. Ellis, born in 1792, married on December 3, 1807, Captain John Campbell, of the War of 1812. He served under General McArthur.

Eleanor Ellis, born in 1795, died November 10, 1882, married on February 10, 1814, James Higgins. They emigrated to Johnson County, Missouri.

ELLIS-HARRIS

Jeremiah Ellis, son of James and Mary (Veatch) Ellis, was born January 21, 1752, died in 1851, and married Nellie Harris in 1779. We have records of four children, however, there may have been more:

Rachel Ellis, born in 1784, died in 1863, married James Wicoff (Wycoff) who was born February 11, 1782, and died September 18, 1818.

John Ellis. No records.

Nathan Ellis, born in 1791, died in 1887, married on June 20, 1811, Ann Harover.

Jeremiah Ellis, Jr., born in 1802, married in 1825, Kaziah Richmond, the daughter of John and Mary Richmond. She was born in 1803 and died in 1887.

ELLIS-FRY

Samuel Ellis, son of James Ellis and Mary Veatch, was born October 22, 1754, and died April 3, 1848, with burial in the Ellis-West Cemetery at Higginsport, Ohio. He married in 1785, Mary Fry, who was born April 11, 1760, and died June 13, 1837. Their children were:

James Ellis, born in 1778, died March 21, 1825, married December 5, 1811, Sarah Heizer, born November 13, 1792, died December 1, 1880. Both buried in the Old Georgetown Cemetery.

Noah Ellis, born in 1789, died Mar. 25, 1848, married Margaret Evans, who died August 27, 1836.

Abraham F. Ellis, born in 1791, died May 27, 1862, married December 24,

178. ABRAHAM FRY (farmer)

1783 Benjamin Fry received a deed for land in Washington co, Pa. —Deed Books.

29 Aug 1785 Abraham Fry patented the 178A on which he was living in 1801; called "Cherry Garden," on west side of Monongahela River in Washington county, Pa. —W.B., V2, p 98. Benjamin Fry was also deeded some additional land at this time.

1790 Census of Washington co, Pa (no twps.), showed as heads of families:

Abraham Fry, 1 male over 16, 1 free white female over 16, 5 slaves.
Abner (sic) Fry, Jnr., 1 male over 16, 4 males under 16, 1 free white female over 16, 1 slave.

4 Apr 1801 Abraham Fry made his will in Washington co, Pa, naming all of the persons listed on the Family Group Sheet. In the will, he said that he had already given his son Benjamin 400A on Lost River in Va., plus a saddle horse, etc.; his son James 450A in Washington co, plus saddle horse, etc.; his son Abraham the 178A "Cherry Garden" and 183A and allowance for roads, plus saddle horse, etc., and the latter was charged with the care of his mother. Daughters were to receive equal shares of his personal estate and proceeds from the sale of 500A of land in Kentucky. His wife was to receive use of the house on the home place, rent from Abraham (Jr.), etc., and services of a negro boy who was to be free when he reached the age of 28. Executors were to be his son Abraham and his son-in-law Noah Speers. Witnesses were Samuel Frueye Siner (sic, i.e.—Samuel Fry, Sr.), William Crawford, Benjamin Hough, and Samuel Fry Junir (sic, i.e.—Jr.).

Jan and Feb 1807 Abraham Fry, Sr. and "Agnes his wife" deeded the two tracts of land described in the will to Abraham Fry, Jr., who paid for them. Witnesses: Jacob Crab and William Moony.

26 Feb 1807 The above-mentioned will was proved and registered. —op cit.

Ellis, James 30 Ia OH

176. JAM IS, SR. RS (farmer)

ca 1723? James Ellis was b in Wales. "Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis came from Wales early in the eighteenth century and settled first in Maryland, where after spending a few years, they emigrated to western Pennsylvania, where Mr. Ellis died some time after the Revolutionary War. There is nothing to show that there were any daughters in the family.

"Religiously, the Ellises were Quakers of the strictest sect and were identified with the colonists in the French and Indian Wars, and later on in the Revolutionary struggle. . . ." —Evans and Stivers, op cit, pp. 662-663.

ca 1750? James Ellis and family are believed to have moved from Wales to Frederick county, Md.

Sept 1774 William and Isaac Ellis bought land in Washington county, Pa., "on the waters of Buffaloe Creek" from William Frazer, although the bill of sale was subsequently lost. —Deed Bk A, Vol. 1, p. 3. These are believed to have been brothers of James.

ca 1776 "James Ellis served as a private in Capt. Adam Foulk's company, 4th Battalion, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania militia. He was born in Wales; died in Pennsylvania." —D.A.R. #129,703.

1787 James and Jermy [Jeremiah?] Ellis were deeded land in Washington county, Pa. —Deed Bk C, Vol. 1, pp. 272, 273, 314, 334, 365.

16 May 1788 James and Mary Ellis received a patent for 63A+ in Washington county, Pa., later called "Ellisburgh." They sold the land on 12 June 1894 to Joseph Chester by a deed witnessed by Joseph Brown, William Feeley, and James Ellis [Junior?], and recorded on 13 June 1791. --Deed Bk K, Vol. 1, p. 31.

14 May 1789 James Elles (sic) of Fallowfield Township, Washington county, Pa., "farmer, and Mary his wife," sold to "Joseph Chester Ship Rite of the same place yeoman," for 36£ "Gold or silver money of Pennsylvania, a tract of land along the west side of the Monongehela River in Fallowfield Township," containing 1A+. James Ellis signed by mark and Mary Ellis by signature. Deed witnessed by Nathan Ellis, Joseph Allen, and Eli Allen and recorded 20 Oct 1789. —Deed Bk D, Vol. 1, p. 400.

1790 census of Washington county, Pa., showed the following:

Name	Free white males 16 and over	Free white males Under 16	Free white females	Slaves
Jesse Ellis	1	1	3	-
Hezekiah Ellis	1	-	4	-
James Ellis, Sr.	1	1	2	1
James Ellis, Jr.	1	1	1	-
Nathan Ellis	1	5	3	-

ca 1795 "James and Mary Veatch Ellis came from Wales to Maryland, where they raised a family of six sons in the Quaker faith. No tradition has any mention of a daughter. A family register, lost in a fire, was not restored, but a few dates have been kept that help in fixing localities. The accepted order of the sons is Nathan, Jeremiah, Samuel, Hezekiah, James, and Jesse. . . . James, the father, died some time after the Revolutionary War. Then the six brothers gathered their families and substance with their mother into a boat at Fort Red Stone, and floated down the Monongahela and the Ohio to Limestone Point or Maysville, which was reached April 27, 1795. . . . five hundred Indians were encamped right across the river. It must not have been a war band, but a peace convention for considering Wayne's recent victory. We cannot admit the Ellis settlements in Ohio were made until 1796. Then, five brothers started homes within the present limits of Brown County. Nathan chose the site where twenty years later he instituted the town of Aberdeen; and the mother of all, whose maiden name was Mary Veatch, died in 1819, and is buried in Aberdeen cemetery." —Williams, op cit, pp 419-420. Apparently this pleasant and romantic fiction about all the brothers and their mother making the trip downriver together was repeated from writer to writer, as the facts enumerated later seem to indicate that only Nathan and Samuel made the initial trip.

"Nathan, Jeremiah, Samuel, Hezekiah, James and Jesse, all sons of James Ellis and Mary Veatch, his wife, came to this section from the neighborhood of Brownsville on the Monongahela River, some sixty miles above Pittsburg (sic), in 1795." --Evans and Stivers, op cit, p 662.

"Nathan Ellis built the first home in what is known as Aberdeen, and twenty-one years after, laid out the town, naming it for the old University town of Aberdeen, Scotland, in honor of one of his fellow townsmen who was a native of the place.

"Samuel Ellis settled at Higginsport, eighteen miles below. James opened up a farm near the present site of Georgetown. Jeremiah Ellis bought lands near Bentonville. Hezekiah Ellis founded a home on the waters of Eagle Creek, and Jesse Ellis entered a tract on what is now known as Brooks Bar; three miles east of Aberdeen. More than a century has passed, yet such has been the staying power of the name that many of the original entries remain in the possession of the family. As a connection, they have ever been blessed with the good things of life and inherit many of the sterling qualities which distinguished their Quaker ancestors." --ibid, pp. 662-663.

1795-1819 There were numerous Ellis marriages in Mason county, Ky. Apparently some of the persons involved were children of other than James Ellis and his sons. --VR

9 Aug 1799 One James Ellis left a will in Mason county, Ky., naming wife Elizabeth and children Elizabeth Ellis, Easther Ellis, Micajah Deaver (a son-in-law?), Sarah Alison, and John Ellis.

1800 Census of Fallowfield township, Washington county, Pa., p 779, showed: James Ellis, Sen., 1 male 45+, 1 female 45+, 3 other free persons; James Ellis, Jun., 3 males under 10, 1 male 26-45, 2 females under 10, 1 female 26-45; and Hezekiah Ellis, 1 male under 10, 1 male 45+, 3 females under 10, 2 females 10-16, 1 female 26-45.

15 June 1801 "We the heirs of James Ellis Senior of Washington county and State of Pennsylvania . . . do not hold Black George as any part of our Father's property any further than to serve our Mother and take care of her as long as she lives agreeable to what we have heard our father say in his lifetime." Signed by Jeremiah Ellis, James Ellis, Hezekiah Ellis, and Jesse Ellis. Witnessed by no other person. Recorded 30 June 1801. —Deed Bk Q, Vol. 1, p 431.

27 Jan 1803 One John Ellis m Kiziah Brooks in Mason county, Ky. Bondsmen were William Brooks and Daniel Boone. —VR

SAMUEL ELLIS was born in France, 22 June, 1694. He was a French tutor; and in 1719, he married Nancy Locke (b. 1697, d. 1770). They became dissatisfied with conditions in France, which were intolerable as that which caused migration of the Puritans at Plymouth and Massachusetts Bay. They went to Holland, then migrated to Wales. In 1748, they sailed for America, settled in New York, and became owners of Ellis Island which still carries their name. Records in Washington, D. C. show that Samuel Ellis and his brother Hezekiah Ellis were the owners of Ellis Island. He gave many sons to our country's service, serving in the French and Indian Wars and the War of the Revolution.

From Recorder's Office, Washington, Washington County, Pennsylvania V. 1, P. 358

Administrators of James Ellis, deceased, to William Crawford, this indenture made the 31st day of August, 1801, between James and Hezekiah Ellis, administrators of all and singular goods and chattels, rights and credits which were of James Ellis, late of County of Washington in the State of Pennsylvania, deceased, at the time of his death, who died intestate, of the one part and William Crawford of the county and state aforesaid, of the other part.

Whereas, in his lifetime became lawfully seized in his demesne as of fee of, or in certain messuage, parcel, or tract of land with the appurtenances called Ellisburg, situated on the southwest side of the River Monongahela, in the County of Washington aforesaid. Beginning at the walnut tree on the bank of the said river; thence, by land of Adam Young, south 53 degrees, west 67 perches, to a walnut tree and south 43 degrees, west 143 perches to a hickory and north 27 degrees, west 82 perches to a dogwood; thence, by land of Peter Hank, south 54 degrees, west 53 perches to a sugar tree, north 20 degrees, east 114 perches to a walnut tree, north 56 degrees, east 82 perches to a sugar tree on the bank of said river; thence, up the same 180 perches to the place of beginning, containing 203 acres, 110 perches and allowance of 6 per cent for roads, etc.

And, afterward, the said James Ellis and his wife, by their two several deeds of conveyance did grant in fee simple to Joseph Coreton, part of the above-bounded premises, both of which deeds are recorded in the Recorder's Office of said county, thereunto had, will more fully appear.

One of which deeds is dated 14th day of May, 1792, containing 1 acre, 109 perches strict measure, the other dated the 12th day of June in the year of our Lord 1796, containing 63 acres, 20 perches strict measure. Being the same tract of land which the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by patent bearing the date of the 16th day of May, 1789, did grant to the said James Ellis, his heirs and assigns in fee simple, which said patent is recorded in Patent Book 15, page 145, reference being thereunto had, will more fully appear and being so thereof seized, died intestate, after whose death (blank). At an Orphan's Court held at Washington, for the County of Washington, the 5th day of July, Anno Domini 1803, before the judges of the same court on the petition of the said James Ellis and Hezekiah Ellis, administrators as aforesaid of the same James Ellis, deceased, setting forth that the personal estate of the said intestate was insufficient for payment of his debts, as by their accounts produced in Court duly authenticated, appeared and stating that the said intestate, seized of the messuage and tract of land aforesaid with appurtenances, and praying the Court to grant them an order to make sale of the said messuage and tract of land aforesaid with appurtenances and for the payment of debts of the said intestate. Whereupon the said court did order the said messuages and tract of land with the appurtenances be sold on the premises on the 3rd Monday of August (then) next and that notice of the sale be given by written advertisement in six public places in the said county, at least three weeks before the date of sale, in pursuance of which, said order of Court, the said James Ellis and Hezekiah Ellis, administrators of aforesaid of the estate of James Ellis, deceased. After due public and timely notice by them of the time and place of sale, accordin g to the direction thereof, did on the time and place therein mentioned expose the premises aforesaid to sale by public vendue on outcry, and sold the same to the said William Crawford for the sum of $13.00 lawful money of the United States per acre with the usual allowance of 6 per cent for roads, etc., he being the highest bidder and that the best price bidden for the sum, which sale or report thereof made known to the Judge of the said Court on the 30th day of August, 1803, was confirmed by the same Court; and it was considered and adjudged by the said Court that the same should remain firm and stable forever as by the record and proceedings, relation being thereunto had will more fully appear.

Now, this indenture witnesseth that the said James and Hezekiah Ellis, administrators of the said James Ellis, deceased, for and in consideration of the sum of $1,807.00 lawful money of the United States to them in hand paid by the said William Crawford at and before the unselling and delivery hereof these presents the receipt whereof, is hereby acknowledged; both granted, bargained, and sold, released and confirmed, and by these presents is pursuance of the said decree and order of the Court, doth grant, bargain, sell, release, and confirm unto the said William Crawford, his heirs, assigns, all that messuage and tract of land aforesaid described, together with all and singular the appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in any wise appertaining and also all the real estate right, title, and interest, property claims, and demands whatsoever of him the said James Ellis, at and immediately before the time of his decease of and in wont of the same.

178. ABRAHAM FRY (farmer)

1783 Benjamin Fry received a deed for land in Washington co, Pa. --Deed Books.

29 Aug 1785 Abraham Fry patented the 178A on which he was living in 1801; called "Cherry Garden," on west side of Monongahela River in Washington county, Pa. --W.B., V2, p 98. Benjamin Fry was also deeded some additional land at this time.

1790 Census of Washington co, Pa (no twps.), showed as heads of families:

Abraham Fry, 1 male over 16, 1 free white female over 16, 5 slaves.

Abner (sic) Fry, Jnr., 1 male over 16, 4 males under 16, 1 free white female over 16, 1 slave.

4 Apr 1801 Abraham Fry made his will in Washington co, Pa, naming all of the persons listed on the Family Group Sheet. In the will, he said that he had already given his son Benjamin 400A on Lost River in Va., plus a saddle horse, etc.; his son James 450A in Washington co, plus saddle horse, etc.; his son Abraham the 178A "Cherry Garden" and 183A and allowance for roads, plus saddle horse, etc., and the latter was charged with the care of his mother. Daughters were to receive equal shares of his personal estate and proceeds from the sale of 500A of land in Kentucky. His wife was to receive use of the house on the home place, rent from Abraham (Jr.), etc., and services of a negro boy who was to be free when he reached the age of 28. Executors were to be his son Abraham and his son-in-law Noah Speerz. Witnesses were Samuel Frueye Siner (sic, i.e.--Samuel Fry, Sr.), William Crawford, Benjamin Hough, and Samuel Fry Junir (sic, i.e.--Jr.).

Jan and Feb 1807 Abraham Fry, Sr. and "Agnes his wife" deeded the two tracts of land described in the will to Abraham Fry, Jr., who paid for them. Witnesses: Jacob Crab and William Moony.

26 Feb 1807 The above-mentioned will was proved and registered. --op cit.

ELLIS

History of Adams County. N. W. Evans and E. B. Stivers. 1900
The Ellis Family

Nathan, Jeremiah, Samuel, Hezekiah, James and Jesse, all sons of James Ellis and Mary Veatch, his wife, came to this section from the neighborhood of Brownsville on the Monongahela River, some sixty miles above Pittsburg, in 1795. Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis came from Wales early in the eighteenth century and settled first in Maryland, where after spending a few years, they emigrated to Western Pennsylvania, where Mr. Ellis died some time after the Revolutionary War. There is nothing to show that there were any daughters in the family.

Religiously, the Ellises were Quakers of the strictest sect and were identified with the Colonists in the French and Indian Wars, and later on in the Revolutionary struggle, several of the name holding commissions in the Continental army. In the Spring of 1795, Captain Nathan Ellis and his five brothers embarked on boats at Brownsville and floated on down past Pittsburg into the Ohio, looking for homes in the mighty forests and fertile lands of the then almost unknown Northwest Territory. The Ohio was the great highway over which came much of the tide of emigration which have peopled this section of the Union, a mighty stream hemmed in by a continent of gloomy shade and wierd solitude, rolling its unbroken length for a thousand miles, a beautiful stretch of restless, heaving water which realized to the voyager the "ocean river of Homeric song."

Landing at Limestone, the Ellis brothers were so charmed with the romantic beauty of the region and the productiveness of the soil, that they determined at once to go no further. At that time, with the exception of a few isolated settlements at Marietta, Manchester, Gallipolis, and Cincinnati, there were but few settlers on the north bank of the river, while upon the south side of the country, it was swarming with emigrants seeking out and appropriating the richest lands and most eligible town sites. Like the Jordan of old, the Ohio was the great boundary line. It stayed the incursions of the Indians, and north of its immediate banks the wave of immigration had not rolled. The very day, April 27, 1795, that Nathan Ellis landed at Limestone, five hundred red men were encamped right across the river. Finding that the most valuable lands were taken up, the Ellis brothers determined to push on into the Northwest Territory. Nathan Ellis built the first home in what is known as Aberdeen, and twenty-one years after, laid out the town, naming it for the old University town of Aberdeen, Scotland, in honor of one of his fellow townsmen who was a native of the place.

Samuel Ellis settled at Higginsport, eighteen miles below. James opened up a farm near the present site of Georgetown. Jeremiah Ellis bought lands near Bentonville. Hezekiah Ellis founded a home on the waters of Eagle Creek, and Jesse Ellis entered a tract on what is now known as Brooks Bar; three miles east of Aberdeen. More than a century has passed, yet such have been the staying qualities of the name that many of the original entries remain in the possession ofthe family. As a connection, they have ever been blessed with the good things of life and inherit many of the sterling qualities which distinguished their Quaker ancestors.

Nathan Ellis was born November 10, 1749, and Mary Walker, his wife, August 31, 1752. They were married in 1770. Nathan Ellis assisted Jonathan Zane and John McIntire in marking out the Zane Trace in 1797 and 1798. He became quite a large landowner, holding at one time eight thousand acres. Aberdeen was first known as "Ellis Ferry." Nathan Ellis became the first Justice of the Peace, an office he held until his death in 1819. In a very readable and interesting volume, "A Tour in the Western Country," published in 1808 by Fortescue Cumming, we find the following: "On Saturday, I returned to Ellis Ferry, opposite Maysville, on the banks of the Ohio. I found 'Squire Ellis seated on a bench under the shade of two locust trees, with a bottle, pen, ink, and several papers, holding a Justice Court, which he does every Saturday. Seven or eight men were sitting on the bench with him, awaiting his award in their several cases. After he had finished, which was soon, after I had taken a seat under the same shade, one of the men invited the 'Squire to drink with him which he consented to do. Some whiskey was procured from Landlord Powers in which all parties made a libation to peace and justice. There was something in the scene so primitive and so simple that I could not help enjoying it with much satisfaction. I took up my quarters for the night with Landlord Powers, who is an Irishman from the Ballinbay in the County of Monaghan. He pays 'Squire Ellis eight hundred dollars per annum for his tavern, fine farm and ferry."

Nathan Ellis and his wife were a couple of untiring energy and great force of character, fit representatives of the heroic men and women who settled in the Ohio Valley and laid the corner stone of the empire in the wilderness. Ten children were born to them: Margaret (Mrs. Scicily); Mary (Mrs. Campbell), 1773; John, 1777; Jeremiah, 1779; Jesse, 1782; Samuel, 1784; Nancy (Mrs. Grimes), 1786; Nathan, 1789; Hetty, 1792; she became the wife of Capt. John Campbell, a distinguished officer under General McArthur, in the War of 1818. Jesse was in his company and took part in many engagements. Elender, born 1795, married James Higgins and emigrated many years ago to Johnson County, Missouri, where she died November 10, 1882.

Jeremiah Ellis married Anna Underwood, daughter of a well-known and prominent Virginia gentleman in 1803. His son, Washington, was born in 1804, and in 1832 married Miss Aris Parker, of Mason County, Kentucky. Jesse Ellis married Sabina, a daughter of Captain Thomas Brooks, of Mason County, Ky., a warm friend and contemporary of Daniel Boone and Simon Kenton, and one of the founders of Maysville (1787); Major John Ellis married Keziah, a daughter of William Brooks, who, with his brother, Thomas, was captured at the battle of Blue Licks and held a prisoner by the Indians for five years. Major Ellis served in an Ohio regiment in the War of 1812, and had quite a noted career as a soldier. Jesse Ellis died in 1877 in his ninety-fifth year. His wife passed away five years later in her ninetieth year. Nathan Ellis died in 1819 and is buried on the hill overlooking Aberdeen. His mother, Mary Veatch, who died in 1799, rests in the Aberdeen cemetery. John died in 1829. Jeremiah died in 1857; Washington, in 1873; his wife in 1891. They all rest in the Ellis family cemetery at Ellis Landing in Sprigg Township, four miles east of Aberdeen. Jeremiah Ellis and Anna Underwood became the parents of ten children, five sons and five daughters, the best known of whom are the Hon. Jesse Ellis, of Aberdeen, Ohio, who has represented Adams County in the Legislature a number of times, and Samuel Ellis, deceased, formerly a sheriff of Lewis County, Kentucky.

Jesse Ellis, although now a resident ofBrown County, was born in Adams County, December 19, 1833. He has always been a farmer, teacher and surveyor, and was at one time surveyor of Adams County for twelve consecutive years. He is a man of charming personality and has many devoted friends. In connection, it is but right that we should mention the record of the sons of the family in the war for the preservation of the Union. Many of them bore commissions but a far greater number were in the ranks. So far as the present writer is informed, the following bore commissions: Lieutenant Col. Edward Ellis, 15th Illinois, killed at Shiloh; Major Ephraim J. Ellis, 33d Ohio; Lieutenant Jesse Ellis, 59th Ohio; and Captain Isaac Dryden, 24th Ohio, grandson of Samuel Ellis, fell at Chickamauga; Private William J. Ellis, Company G, 70th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, was the first man of that regiment killed at Shiloh. His head was carried away by a cannon ball. Drs. Samuel and Lewis Ellis were medical officers; Dryden Ellis, Captain 6th Ohio Cavalry; Amos Ellis, Lieutenant 70th Ohio; AndersonV. Ellis, Lieutenant 49th Ohio; William Ellis, Captain 16th Kentucky; Joseph Ellis, Lieutenant 175th Ohio. Major Ellis was the Captain of the Manchester Company in the 33d Ohio at the time he enlisted in 1861. He commanded his regiment at the battle of Stone River and had a horse killed under him. He was a most gallant and beloved officer, and had he lived, would have been put in command of one of the new Ohio regiments then organizing for the field. Of the private soldiers of the Ellis family, it is impossible to speak in detail. Quite a number of them lost their lives on the field of battle; some of them died in rebel prisons; others perished from wounds and diseases, and many of them lived to get back home to the green hills of the old Buckeye State and to rejoice that peace had come to our land, and that we were a reunited nation sovereign and great and free.

Anderson Nelson Ellis, A. M., M. D., son of Washington and Aris Ellis, was born at Ellis Landing, Sprigg Township, Adams County, Ohio, December 19, 1840. In his twelfth year, he entered the public schools of Ripley where he remained six years, and during which times, those schools maintained a very high standard of excellence under such well known efficient instructors as Capt. F. W. Hurth, Rev. W. H. Andrews, Prof. Ulysses Thompson and Gen. Jacob Ammen. He then entered the Freshman class at the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio, where he remained until the breaking out of the War of the Rebellion, when he went to the front as a volunteer aide-de-camp on the staff of the late Major General William Nelson, and remained with him until his death. Subsequently, he was attached to the staff of his old teacher, Gen. Ammen, then commanding the fourth division of the Army of the Ohio under Gen. Don Carlos Buell. On the eighteenth of March, 1862, he was appointed Second Lieutenant of the 49th Ohio Regiment, Col. William H. Gibson, which commission he resigned September 28, 1863, on account of failing health. Returning home, he at once entered Miami University and graduated the following year. In 1885, his Alma Mater conferred upon him the degree of Master of Arts.

In the Spring of 1865, he began the stufy of medicine in the office of Dr. A. G. Goodrich, of Oxford, Ohio, and afterward attended medical lectures at Ann Arbor, Michigan; Pittsfield, Mass.; New York City and Cincinnati. At the Berkshire Medical College, he was assistant to the chair of Chemistry and graduated with the valedictory. Subsequently the board of trustees of that institution elected him Demonstrator of Anatomy. In March, 1868, the Ohio Medical College gave him an addendum degree. After some little private practice in Ohio and Kansas, Dr. Ellis entered the Ohio Regular Army as a medical officer, and spent fiveyears on the plains and mountains of the Southwest. To one who had as yet known nothing beyond the haunts of civilization, the nomadic life of an army officer presented many attractions. While in New Mexico and Arizona, the Doctor became much interested in the history of the Pueblo Indians--that last remnant of the Aztec population of the days of the Spanish conquest, who present the pathetic spectacle of a civilization perishing without a historian to recount its rise, ruin and fall, its art, poetry, sorrow and suffering--a repetition of the silent death of the Mound Builders. He spent much of his time while off duty in exploring those ancient ruins that lie all over that interesting land. After leaving the service, he delivered many lectures and published a number of magazine articles on "The Land of the Aztec." From the very day of his graduation in medicine, Dr. Ellis had cast longing eyes at the admirable teaching and superior clinical advantages of the great European hospitals. In 1878, he resolved to realize this day dream of his life. He then went abroad and spent eighteen months in Heidelberg, Vienna and London, and afterward made a journey through Italy and France. While absent from the United States, he published many letters in the press, of his observations and travels in those countries, the most notable of which was "Pen and Ink Pictures of Venice, Florence, Rome, Naples, Pompeii, Leghorn and Genoa." Shortly after his return home to Cincinnati, he received the appointment of Assistant Physician at Longview Asylum a position which he soon found irksome, but which led to an intimate acquaintance with nervous diseases and his appearance in many of the Courts of the State as a medical expert in insanity cases. In September, 1882, he was called to the chair of Laryngology in the Cincinnati College of Medicine and Surgery, which position he took and held until the close of the session 1890, and found himself to be an efficient and popular teacher. On December 10, 1893, Gov. Charles Foster appointed him Captain andAssistant Surgeon of the First Regiment, Ohio National Guards, Col. Charles B. Hunt, commanding, and on the thirty-first day of July, 1888, Gov. J. B. Foraker promoted him to the surgeoncy with the rank of Major, the vacancy being made by the promotion of the lamented Dr. E. A. Jones, to the position of Surgeon General of the State of Ohio.

In the Spring of 1894, Dr. Ellis determined, on account of failing health, to leave Cincinnati and go to his ancestral acres at Ellis Landing and devote his entire time and energy to the calling of the farmer. He had scarcely settled himself in the old homestead before patients came to his door in great numbers. Not wishing to return to Cincinnati, he has removed to Maysville, Kentucky, where he is actively engaged in the practice of his profession.

On the thirtieth of December, 1891, Dr. Ellis was married to Miss Laura Murphy, daughter of James Murphy, a prominent farmer and stock-raiser of Butler County, Ohio. She is a graduate of the Oxford Female College of the class of 1873, and was for many years the Lady President of the Alumnae Association of that institution. One child, a boy now in his fifth year, has blessed their union, who bears the name of William Nelson, in honor of one of the heroes of the war.

Foremost among the pioneer settlers of Pleasant Township were the Ellises. By general assent, they are regarded as the first white men to make a permanent settlement in the township. Five brothers--Samuel, James, Hezekiah, Jeremiah and Nathan Ellis--in 1796, floated down the Ohio in a keelboat from Virginia, in quest of Western homes. Nathan landed at the site of Aberdeen, and subsequently became its founder, and a prominent citizen. Jeremiah and Hezekiah both settled on Eagle Creek, while James and Samuel continued on down the river in the boat until they reached a point one and a half miles above the mouth of White Oak Creek. Here they stopped and agreed to locate. They retained possession of the boat, using it for a residence until they had erected log cabins. The cabin of James was built further down, within half a mile of the White Oak Creek bridge. James here kept one of the earliest distilleries in the county. He raised a family of children, but none of them or their posterity now live in that vicinity. Samuel sonn purchased the land he settled on, and rose to opulence and prominence. He was tall in stature, possessed a vigorous constitution and indomitable energy. He died in his ninety-third year. At his request, he was interred on the spot where he first pitched his tent on landing in the Northwest Territory in 1796, but so close was it to the shore of the river that subsequently it became necessary to remove the remains to another portion of the farm. His children were James, Noah, Abram, Samuel, Matilda, Mary, Christina, India Ann, Nancy, and Rebecca.

James and Mary (Veatch) Ellis came from Wales to Maryland where they raised a family of six sons in the Quaker faith. No tradition has any mention of a daughter. A family register, lost in a fire, was not restored, but a few dates have been kept that help in fixing the localities. The accepted order of the sons is Nathan, Jeremiah, Samuel, Hezekiah, James and Jesse. Nathan was born November 10, 1749, and in 1770, married Mary Walker, who was born August 31, 1752. They had ten children, the last being born in 1795. Samuel Ellis, Sr., was born October 25, 1754, in Frederick Co., Maryland, which at that time--just before Braddock's defeat--was the frontier. In pushing westward they crossed the eastern ridges and no doubt were among those who were repressed by the odious Act of Quebec. For, in the Revolution, Samuel Ellis, Sr., was in Col. John Stevenson's command of Pennsylvanians, who built Fort McIntosh at the mouth of Beaver on the Ohio, and Fort Laurens, where the Big Trail crossed the Tuscawawas river, all as a part of the plan to capture Detroit. For that service, he was placed on the pension roll, April 17, 1834. He married Mary Fry and several of their children were born in the East.

James, the father, died some time after the Revolution. Then the ~~six~~ 5 brothers gathered their families and substance with their mother into a boat at Fort Red Stone, and floated down the Monongahela and the Ohio to Limestone Point or Maysville, which was reached April 27, 1795. The writer of an excellent sketch of the Nathan Ellis Family in Evans and Stiver's History of Adams County gives that date and claims that five hundred Indians were encamped right across the river. It must have been not a war band, but a peace convention for considering Wayne's recent victory. We cannot admit that the Ellis settlements in Ohio were made until 1796. Then, five brothers started homes within the present limits of Brown County. Nathan chose the site where twenty years later he instituted the town of Aberdeen; and the mother of all, whose maiden name was Mary Veatch, died in 1819, and is buried in Aberdeen cemetery.

Jeremiah and Hezekiah stopped by Eagle Creek. The other two went farther down. James located near and above White Oak, where he started a still, but eventually went further west. The James Ellis who settled near Georgetown was a nephew of Nathan, and a son of Samuel, Sr.

The story of Samuel Ellis, Sr., affords much pleasant incident. After the Revolution, he crossed the Potomac and became a neighbor of Col. Robert V. Higgins, who gradually came to owe him twelve hundred dollars. When the Virginia military district became available, Col. Higgins came west and personally selected the site and laid his warrant for a thousand acres on the Ohio, including the mouth of White Oak creek. On returning to Virginia with glowing description of his land, Col. Higgins proposed to pay his debt to Samuel with any two hundred acres that might be selected in a body from his tract. On coming west the land was found to equal the Colonel's praise and the part chosen was a rectangular tract one hundred and sixty-five rods wide by two hundred rods long, slightly rolling and situated so that the waters of the west end flow to White Oak and the waters of the east end flow to Straight creek. The bounding foothill runs parallel with the river bank, with scarcely a break or show of ravine at either end of the scene, which forms one of the most beautiful and intrinsically valuable farms of its size, even in the far famed beauty of Ohio. The high price for the time was wisely paid. This farm, besides the distinction of being the first settlement made in Pleasant township by the white race, also has the rare distinction in this region of being owned and occupied by the same family through a hundred and fifteen years.

Upon this ideal farm, Samuel Ellis lived with such fine, successful management to the age of ninety-four years that he was able to give each of his 11? ten children a fine property. He was a tall, energetic, finely made man, who with the exception of fifteen months' service as county commissioner, that terminated with the territorial days, had no time for public affairs. Their children were James, Noah, Abram, Samuel, Matilda, Mary, Christina, India Ann, Nancy and Rebecca.

Upon his father's death in 1848, the fine old home farm descended to Samuel Ellis, Jr. who married Sarah, a daughter of Amos and Mary (McConnell) Ellis, whose settlement is noted on page 212, and whose public service is mentioned on page 333 and several succeeding pages of the historical volume of this work. Amos Ellis was from Yellow Creek, Bedford County, Pennsylvania, and he was not related to any others of the name mentioned in this work. The children of this family were William, Amos, Rachel, Rebecca, Mary, Sarah and Ann.

The thrifty management of the pioneer Samuel Ellis was continued by his son Samuel, Jr., who largely restored the original survey of Col. Higgins to the first form through a series of events that included the relations of several families. In his earliest days in Brown County, Thomas L. Hamer married Lydia B., a daughter of Col. Higgins, and at the outbreak of the Mexican war, Hamer's partner in his law firm was Sanders W. Johnston, a grandson of Col.

Higgins, and the captain of the first company from Brown County in the Mexican war, and also the State Senator from Brown and Clermont in 1852-3. After General Hamer's death, in administeringupon his estate, Captain Johnston sold four hundred and thirty acres of Colonel Higgin's original survey at $40.00 per acre, in 1853, to Samuel Ellis, Jr., who thus came to own six hundred and thirty acres of the tract selected by Colonel Higgins. Upon this homestead he lived as the sole owner until his death. November 20, 1870, in his seventy-seventh year.

George M. married Emma Jones and has one son and two daughters. Amos F., mentioned below. Samuel, Jr., married Georgia Drake and had two sons and four daughters. Mary Ann married Joseph Heizer and left two daughters living in Greenfield, Ind. Poleman Nelson Ellis married Hannah Pangburn. They had four sons. Of them, the father and two sons are dead, but the widow and the other two sons, Oscar C. and Edgar W., are sketched on other pages of this work. Eliza married John Steward, lived in Neoga, Ill., and left one son. Alonzo W. died unmarried at Bantam, in Clermont County. Unless otherwise stated these people belong to Brown County; and all of them have had a just pride in the rare beauty of the ancestral farm, which Samuel Ellis, Jr. besides other holdings, was able to enlarge to almost a thousand contiguous acres. He earnestly advised that some one of his posterity should own the first choice of his father.

The old homestead of two hundred acres has thus been owned by Samuel Ellis, Sr., for fifty-two years, or until 1848, and then by Samuel Ellis, Jr., for twenty-two years, or until 1870. In the partition of the estate, the homestead was bought by Amos F. Ellis for $92.50 per acre, subject to the dower of his mother, who died in January, 1872, in her seventy-third year. In 1879 the property was sold to his youngest brother, Alonzo W. Ellis, from whom it was bought by another brother, Poleman N. Ellis, from whom, upon his death, August 28, 1912, the still cherished old homestead still entre passed by inheritance to his widow, Hannah, and their sons, Oscar C. and Edgar W. Ellis, of the fourth generation.

Amos F. Ellis, sixth child of Samuel and Sarah Ellis, was born July 2, 1831. After the schools at home, he took the scientific course at the Ohio Wesleyan University, and returned to the ancestral home in the summer of 1852, whence he went down the river on the then popular steamboat trip. Over five years were spent in teachingand traveling that included the most interesting points of every Southern State. On March 2, 1858, he married Maria, a daughter of Jesse and Christina Heizer Dugan, as mentioned on page 244 of our History. Their only child, Frank P. Ellis, was born December 7, 1858. In the Civil War, Amos F. Ellis sternly enlisted in Company K ofthe Seventieth Ohio, in which he served as a liutenant and was present both days of the battle of Shiloh in a way that was warmly commended in the official reports.

In 1863 the "Soldier Vote" elected him a recorder of Brown County. Amid the promise of financial prosperity, his wife died, October 23, 1873. In 1877 he married Maria, a daughter of Nicholas and Ann Posey Sinks, and a granddaughter of Nicholas Sinks, Sr., mentioned in the sketch of the Sharp Family. Soon after his marriage, Mr. Ellis moved from Higginsport to Williamsburg, where none lived in kinder plenty or finer content till their home was desolated on November 25, 1910, by the death of Maria Ellis. But Amos Ellis is not lacking in true philosophy. Like his ancestors, he believes in broad acres, and the many he owns keep his thoughts busy.

On November 15, 1882, Frank P. Ellis married Mary F., youngest daughter of John and Elizabeth Wright Park, whose ancestry is detailed in the sketch of that family. Since their marriage Frank and Mary Park Ellis have lived in Athens and Chattanooga, Tenn. They have four daughters, Effie, Marie, Ruth and Frankie. The latter two are at home. Marie married Robert Sayes, of Chattanooga. Effie married Herschel M. Chandler, a native of North Carolina, a lawyer, and ex-member of the legislature, and is serving on the staff of Governor Hooper, of Tennessee, with the rank of colonel. They live in Athens, and have one daughter, Mildred.

ca 1795 "James and Mary Veatch Ellis came from Wales to Maryland, where they raised a family of six sons in the Quaker faith. No tradition has any mention of a daughter. A family register, lost in a fire, was not restored, but a few dates have been kept that help in fixing localities. The accepted order of the sons is Nathan, Jeremiah, Samuel, Hezekiah, James, and Jesse. . . . James, the father, died some time after the Revolutionary War. Then the six brothers gathered their families and substance with their mother into a boat at Fort Red Stone, and floated down the Monongahela and the Ohio to Limestone Point or Maysville, which was reached April 27, 1795. . . . five hundred Indians were encamped right across the river. It must not have been a war band, but a peace convention for considering Wayne's recent victory. We cannot admit the Ellis settlements in Ohio were made until 1796. Then, five brothers started homes within the present limits of Brown County. Nathan chose the site where twenty years later he instituted the town of Aberdeen; and the mother of all, whose maiden name was Mary Veatch, died in 1819, and is buried in Aberdeen cemetery." -- Williams, op cit, pp 419-420. Apparently this pleasant and romantic fiction about all the brothers and their mother making the trip downriver together was repeated from writer to writer, as the facts enumerated later seem to indicate that only Nathan and Samuel made the initial trip.

"Nathan, Jeremiah, Samuel, Hezekiah, James and Jesse, all sons of James Ellis and Mary Veatch, his wife, came to this section from the neighborhood of Brownsville on the Monongahela River, some sixty miles above ttsburg (sic), in 1795." --Evans and Stivers, op cit, p 662.

"Nathan Ellis built the first home in what is known as Aberdeen, and twenty-one years after, laid out the town, naming it for the old University town of Aberdeen, Scotland, in honor of one of his fellow townsmen who was a native of the place.

"Samuel Ellis settled at Higginsport, eighteen miles below. James opened up a farm near the present site of Georgetown. Jeremiah Ellis bought lands near Bentonville. Hezekiah Ellis founded a home on the waters of Eagle Creek, and Jesse Ellis entered a tract on what is now known as Brooks Bar; three miles east of Aberdeen. More than a century has passed, yet such has been the staying power of the name that many of the original entries remain in the possession of the family. As a connection, they have ever been blessed with the good things of life and inherit many of the sterling qualities which distinguished their Quaker ancestors." --ibid, pp. 662-663.

1795-1819 There were numerous Ellis marriages in Mason county, Ky. Apparently some of the persons involved were children of other than James Ellis and his sons. --VR

9 Aug 1799 One James Ellis left a will in Mason county, Ky., naming wife Elizabeth and children Elizabeth Ellis, Easther Ellis, Micajah Deaver (a son-in-law?), Sarah Alison, and John Ellis.

176. JAMES ELLIS, SR. RS (farmer)

ca 1723? James Ellis was b in Wales. "Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis came from Wales early in the eighteenth century and settled first in Maryland, where after spending a few years, they emigrated to western Pennsylvania, where Mr. Ellis died some time after the Revolutionary War. There is nothing to show that there were any daughters in the family.

"Religiously, the Ellises were Quakers of the strictest sect and were identified with the colonists in the French and Indian Wars, and later on in the Revolutionary struggle. . . ." --Evans and Stivers, op cit, pp. 662-663.

1749 "Nathan Ellis was born November 10, 1749, and Mary Walker, his wife, August 31, 1752. They were married in 1770. Nathan Ellis assisted Jonathan Zane and John McIntire in marking out the Zane Trace in 1797 and 1798. He became quite a large landowner, holding at one time eight thousand acres. . . ." --ibid, p 663.

ca 1750? James Ellis and family are believed to have moved from Wales to Frederick county, Md.

Sept 1774 William and Isaac Ellis bought land in Washington county, Pa., "on the waters of Buffaloe Creek" from William Frazer, although the bill of sale was subsequently lost. --Deed Bk A, Vol. 1, p. 3. These are believed to have been brothers of James.

ca 1776 "James Ellis served as a private in Capt. Adam Foulk's company, 4th Battalion, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania militia. He was born in Wales; died in Pennsylvania." --D.A.R. #129,703.

1787 James and Jermy [Jeremiah?] Ellis were deeded land in Washington county, Pa. --Deed Bk C, Vol. 1, pp. 272, 273, 314, 334, 365.

16 May 1788 James and Mary Ellis received a patent for 63A+ in Washington county, Pa., later called "Ellisburgh." They sold the land on 12 June 1894 to Joseph Chester by a deed witnessed by Joseph Brown, William Feeley, and James Ellis [Junior?] , and recorded on 13 June 1791. --Deed Bk K, Vol. 1, p. 31.

14 May 1789 James Elles (sic) of Fallowfield Township, Washington county, Pa., "farmer, and Mary his wife," sold to "Joseph Chester Ship Rite of the same place yeoman," for 36℔ "Gold or silver money of Pennsylvania, a tract of land along the west side of the Monongehela River in Fallowfield Township," containing 1A+. James Ellis signed by mark and Mary Ellis by signature. Deed witnessed by Nathan Ellis, Joseph Allen, and Eli Allen and recorded 20 Oct 1789. --Deed Bk D, Vol. 1, p. 400.

Penna. SAMUEL ELLIS S 8400
Ohio, Brown County Jan. 10, 1834

Samuel Ellis, a resident of the above said county and State, in he 81st year of his age, who, being duly sworn according to law, doth on is oath make the following declaration in order to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated and was first in Capt. Andrew Swearingin's Company, in Col. Stevenson's Regt. In the spring of 1778 he was ordered by the Colonel commanding the regiment to perform a tour of duty of 6 months, and go in an expedition commanded by Gen. Lachian McIntosh against the Indians and to rendezvous at Pittsburg in August of the same year. From thence they marched to the mouth of Big Beaver on the Ohio River and remained until a strong garrison was erected and completed. The army which rendezvoued and built Fort McIntosh as above stated was composed of the eight Penna. Regiments commanded by Colonel Broadhead of the 13th Virginia Reg. commanded by Col. John Stevenson (or Stephenson), and the other commanded by Col. Evans. That after building Fort McIntosh the whole army except one Co. left at said fort, marched to the upper fork of the Muskingha River or to Tuscarora Creek and there built a fort called Fort Lawrence and after finishing the same the army marched on their return to Fort McIntosh, leaving Col. John Gibson and his regiment to keep the said Fort Lawrence. An when we arrived at Fort McIntosh was mustered and disinfused. And further this applicant, sayeth that he was the Orderly Serg. of Capt. Andrew Swearin in's Co. during said Campaign. That before and after said campaign this applicant lived in his father's family who resided on the Monogahela River, ow the county of Washington, State of Penna.

In answer to questions asked him he said

I was born in Frederick Co. in the state of Maryland the 22nd day of October 1752.

I have no record of my age since the death of my father but verily know that to be my true age. I have often seen my age in my father's Bible.

I was living, when called into service, in Washington Co., Penna. where I lived seven years, then removing to Ohio Co., Va., where I resided 12 years. Thence I removed to North West Territory, now the State of Ohio in Brown County, where I now reside.

I was called into service by Draft out of Nathan Ellis's Company. Ithink according to my recolection I was drafted in the latter part of July, 1778, when a resident of Washington Co., Penna.

Samuel Ellis Sgt. Pa Line under Col. Wm. Stevenson

88. SAMUEL ELLIS RS (farmer)

"Samuel Ellis, Sr., was born October 25, 1754, in Frederick County, Maryland,which at that time--just before Braddock's defeat--was the frontier. In pushing westward they crossed the eastern ridges and no doubt were among those who were repressed by the odious Act of Quebec. For, in the Revolution, Samuel Ellis, Sr., was in Col John Stevenson's command of Pennsylvanians, who built Fort McIntosh at the mouth of Beaver on the Ohio, and Fort Laurens, where the Big Trail crossed the Tuscarawas River, all as a part of the plan to capture Detroit. For that service, he was placed on the pension roll, April 17, 1834. He married Mary Fry and several of their children were born in the East. . . . . , ...

The story of Samuel Ellis, Sr., affords much pleasant incident. After the Revolution, he crossed the Potomac and became a neighbor of Col. Robert V. Higgins, who gradually came to owe him twelve hundred dollars. When the Virginia military district became available, Col. Higgins came west and personally selected the site and laid his warrant for a thousand acres on the Ohio, including the mouth of White Oak Creek. On returning to Virginia with glowing description of his land, Col. Higgins proposed to pay his debt to Samuel with any two hundred acres that might be selected in a body from his tract. On coming west the land was found to equal the Colonel's praise and the part chosen was a rectangular tract one hundred and sixty-five rods wide by two hundred rods long, slightly rolling and situated so that the waters of the west end flow to White Oak and the waters of the east end flow to Straight Creek. The bounding foothill runs parallel with the river bank, with scarcely a break or show of ravine at either end of the scene, which forms one of the most beautiful and intrinsically valuable farms of its size, even in the far-famed beauty of Ohio. The high price for the time was wisely paid. This farm, besides the distinction of being the first settlement in Pleasant Township by the white race, also had the rare distinction in this region of being owned by the same family through a hundred and fifteen years.

Upon this ideal farm, Samuel Ellis lived with such fine, successful management to the age of ninety-four years that he was able to give each of his ten children a fine property. He was a tall, energetic, finely made man, who, with the exception of fifteen months as county commissioner, that terminated with the territorial days, had no time for public affairs. . . . Their children were James, Noah, Abram, Samuel, Matilda, Mary, Christina, India Ann, Nancy, and Rebecca." --Williams, op cit, V 2, pp 419-421.

ca 1770 It appears that Samuel's parents may haved moved their family to Washington co, Pa., as those members of the family who served in the Revolution all served in Pennsylvania regiments.

ca 1776 Samuel Ellis served as "Sgt. in Capt. Andrew Swearingen's Co., Col. Wm. Stevenson's Reg't., Pa. line. B. 1754, Md. D. 1848, Brown county, Ohio. Bur Higginsport, Ohio." --Official Roster, op cit, p 127.

ca 1778? Samuel Ellis m Mary Fry and became a neighbor of Col. Robert V. Higgins. --Williams, loc cit.

68. SAMUEL ELLIS RS (farmer) (continued)

1785 Such records as are available for the "1790 Census" show only two families headed by a "Robert Higgins" in Virginia--both in Hampshire county. However, these records were only for about half the counties. One Samuel Ellis was shown as head of a family of "10 white souls" in Norfolk co, on the list of William King, in "Portsmouth, S. side of Western branch to New Mill Creek", along with families headed by other Ellises. This is remote indeed from Hampshire county--or from Frederick County, Md., and this Samuel is probably not the correct one. --op cit.

1790 Hezekiah, James Sr., James Jr., Jesse, and Nathan Ellis were all heads of families in the Census of Washington co, Pa. Where were Samuel and Jeremiah?

ca 1795 Despite printed accounts to the contrary, it appears that Jeremiah and Samuel, with their families, may have joined with the families of Nathan and Jesse in Washington co, and the four brothers made the trip down the Ohio. James Jr. and Hezekiah, with their mother, must have moved westward at a later date, following the death of James, Sr., which apparently did not occur until after 1800. See following census data.

27 Apr 1795 Nathan Ellis and those who accompanied him landed at Limestone (now Maysville) Ky. --Biographical Cyclopedia, op cit, p 1170.

"In the spring of 1795 . . . five brothers embarked on flat boats at Brownsville, on the Monongahela, and floated down past Pittsburg (sic) into the Ohio, looking for homes in the mighty forests and fertile lands of the then almost unexplored Northwestern Territory. The Ohio was the great highway over which came much of the tide of emigration (sic) that has peopled much of this section of the Union--a mighty stream, hemmed in by a continent of gloomy shade and weird solitude, rolling its unbroken length for a thousand miles--a beautiful stretch of restless, heaving water, that realized to the voyager the 'Ocean River' of Homeric song. Landing at Limestone, the Ellis brothers were so charmed with the romantic beauty of the region and the productiveness of the soil that they at once determined to go no further. At that time, with the exception of a few isolated settlements at Marietta, Gallipolis, and Cincinnati, there were but few settlers on the north bank of the river, while upon the south side the country was swarming with emigrants, seeking out and appropriating the richest lands and the most eligible town sites. Like the Jordan of old, the Ohio was a great boundary line. It stayed the incursions of the Indians, and beyond it the wave of emigration had not yet rolled. The very day (April 27th, 1795) that Captain (Nathan) Ellis landed at Limestone, five hundred red men were encamped right across the river. Finding that the most valuable lands were taken up, the Ellis brothers determined to push on over into the Northwest Territory. Captain Nathan Ellis laid out Aberdeen, directly opposite Maysville, his brother, Sam, settled what is now Higginsport, eighteen miles below, while some of the brothers found homes on the waters of Eagle Creek, a few miles distant from the river. Each of the name took up large tracts of land and such have been the staying qualities of the blood that many of the original entries remain in the possession of the family. As a connection they have ever been blessed with an abundance of the good things of life, and inherit many of the sterling qualities which distinguished their Quaker ancestors." --ibid.

1797 Adams co, Ohio, was formed, and included the area where Samuel Ellis had settled his family.

"In June, 1805, the rates for . . . ferry licenses were priced as follows: . . . at Samuel Ellis', above the mouth of White Oak, $1.50." --Beers, op cit, p 282.

"Early Settlers

Foremost among the pioneer settlers of Pleasant township were the Ellises. By general assent, they are regarded as the first white men to make a permanent settlement in the township. Five brothers--Samuel, James, Hezekiah, Jeremiah and Nathan Ellis--in 1796, floated down the Ohio in a keelboat from Virginia, in quest of Western homes. . . . James and Samuel continued on down the river in a boat until they reached a point one and a half miles above the mouth of White Oak creek. Here they stopped and agreed to locate. They retained possession of the boat, using it for a residence until they had erected log cabins. . . . Samuel soon purchased the land he settled on, and rose to opulence and prominence. He was tall in stature, possessed a vigorous constitution and indomitable energy. He died in his ninety-third year. At his request, he was interred on the spot where he first pitched his tent on landing in the Northwest Territory in 1796, but so close was it to the shore of the river that it subsequently became necessary to remove the remains to another portion of the farm. His children were James, Noah, Abram, Samuel, Matilda, Mary, Christina, India Ann, Nancy, and Rebecca." --ibid, pp 371-372.

"Samuel Ellis settled near Higginsport, eighteen miles below. James opened up a farm near the present site of Georgetown. Jeremiah Ellis bought lands near Bentonville. Hezekiah Ellis founded a home on the waters of Eagle Creek, and Jesse Ellis entered a tract of land on what is now known as [illegible] Bar; three miles east of Aberdeen." --Evans and Stivers, op cit, pp 662-663.

1800 James Sr., James Jr., and Hezekiah Ellis were all heads of families in Fallowfield twp, Washington co, Pa. --1800 Census 1817 Brown co, Ohio, was formed from Adams county.

1820 Samuel, Noah, and James Ellis were all heads of familes in Pleasant twp, Brown co, Ohio. --Census, pp 324, 374. Abraham and Samuel, Jr., were in Eagle twp. --ibid, p 350.

1830 Samuel, Samuel Jr., and Noah Ellis were all heads of familes in Pleasant twp, Brown co, Ohio. Abraham was head of family in Lewis twp. --Census, pp 440, 447, 449. James seems to have left the county.

17 April 1834 Samuel Ellis was placed on pension roll for military service. --Williams, loc cit.

WILL OF ROBERT DOWNING-- Page 355, History of Mason County, Kentucky, by Clift.

I, Robert Downing of Mason County Kentucky .. do this being the first day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and two, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner as followeth that is to say first I give unto my two sons James Downing and Thomas Downing two thirds of the tract of land I now live on the two thirds to be laid off in the East end of the said tract of land beginning at the corner next James Turner's and run with Amos Corwine's line and with Tebb's and then be divided between the two equal in quality and quantity and one third of the said tract of that part I now live on I give unto my loving wife Jane Downing during her natural life with all appurtenances thereunto belonging that is to say all the working tools of kinds that is needful for the place and the stock all kinds with three work horses. I also give unto my son Robert Downing when he shall become of age the one hald of that part of the daid land left to his mother and after her death the whole to be his. I likewise will all the land that I now own on the north fork of Licking River with the mill and saw mill and grist mill to be sold and four hundred pounds to be divided between my daughters, fifty pounds to each one, and if there is any over plush money after expences are paid, for it to be equally divided amongst the children to defray the expences of their schooling, likewise all bonds notes or book accounts to be collected and after all expences are discharged to be equally divided amongst the children and now I made and ordain these my two brothers John Downing, and Timothy Downing eversers of this my last will to take care and see the same performed according to my time intent and meaning.

In wittness whereof I the said Robert Downing have this day to this my last will and Testament set my hand and seal, sixteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and two.

Robert Downing (Seal)

Signed, Sealed in the presence of wittnesses present.

44. ROBERT ELLIS (ca 1796-1841) farmer

The compilers wish to acknowledge the valuable assistance of Sue Bennett and Tracy Cavendish in researching this man and his family.

ROBERT ELLIS was b ca 1796 (census records; 1820, 1830, 1840, q.v., p. 138). The 1880 census records of sons John Robert and JESSE (q.v.) both stated that their father was b in VA. We think it likely that the birth occurred in Ohio co., VA, where several members of the Ellis tribe are known to have lived briefly before proceeding to Brown co., OH, or to Mason co., KY. However, Brooke co. was formed from Ohio co. in 1796, so ROBERT may have been b there.

"His [I. W. Ellis'] paternal grandfather [ROBERT ELLIS] removed in an early day from Pennsylvania, and later settled in Indiana" [error; as his cited estate records indicate, ROBERT d in OH] (Portrait and Biog. Rec. of Randolph, Jackson, Perry, and Monroe Counties, Illinois, 1894, 857). Whoever gave the account of I[ra] W. Ellis probably was relying on the long-repeated romantic fiction about the man believed to have been ROBERT's father, JAMES ELLIS [Jr; ca 1765-1839], and his brothers floating down the Ohio river with their mother, MARY VEATCH, after the death of their father. More about that under Index #88.

We believe that census and tax records which follow establish that ROBERT was the s of JAMES ELLIS (ca 1765-1838), known as JAMES ELLIS, Jr., until the death of his father in 1801. From records of numerous interactions of the families, we believe that JAMES's wife, the mother of ROBERT, whose name has not yet been determined, may have been nee [---?---] KEITHLER.

We have proof that JAMES, Jr., was in Washington co. as late as Feb 1805, when he, as acting administrator, filed the final accounting of his father's estate, so we surmise that he was living not too far away, perhaps in VA.

When ROBERT ELLIS went with his father to Ohio has not yet been determined. In 1883, the authors of History of Brown County, Ohio, in their discussion of Green twp. (p 644), stated: "Where Jesse Day now resides, not far from the year 1816 [sic], there lived ROBERT ELLIS." That information probably was provided by a descendant of ROBERT who remembered his living in Green twp, but it could not have been correct as Green was not formed [from Sterling twp] until 1838.

On 16 Sep 1819, ROBERT ELLIS was m to LEAH HOLMAN in Brown co., OH, by Robert Allen, J.P. Although others have given the date as 15 Oct 1819, the lic date was 23 Sep 1819, with a return by Robert Allen on 1 Oct indicating that he performed the marriage "On the Sixteenth of Sept last" (VR, marr; B2, 23). IF his statement is correct, the couple was married before the license was obtained. We think that Allen or the recorder got the dates reversed, with the lic having been issued on 16 Sep and the marriage performed 23 Sep; see next two items.

ROBERT seemingly had to borrow money from his cousin James (1787/8-1825) to pay for the lic, and perhaps the J.P.; see the photocopy of his note of 16 Sep on page 148, taken from estate file #7451, Brown co, OH. It bears the only facsimile of ROBERT's signature so far found.

The compilers re-examined file #7451 on 7 Nov 1991, and found documents for the James who d in 1825 and he who d in 1839 jumbled; however, we found twofold distinguishing evidence: (1) The man who d in 1825 did so in Pleasant twp, while the James Ellis [bro of ROBERT] who d in 1839 was "late of Green township" and (2) the 1825 estate was administered by Noah Ellis, while the 1839 estate was administered by John Allen. Researchers are warned that the papers are likely to have been intermixed again.

The file is, partially, that of James Ellis (d 21 Mar 1825), s of Samuel and thus a cousin of ROBERT's. ROBERT's note, to that James, seemingly was still not fully paid when the latter's estate was settled in 1830; see below.

In the 1820 census, ROBERT was shown as head of a household in Eagle twp., Brown co. (p 349, reel 86). ROBERT undoubtedly was the m age 18-26, and LEAH the f 16-26; we do not yet know who the f 26-45 in the household was.

In the 1825 Personal Tax list of Eagle twp., James Ellis was listed as owning one horse, and in the similar list for Pleasant twp., JAMES and ROBERT ELLIS were listed consecutively; JAMES owned four cows, and ROBERT, two. The Jameses were two different men, with the one in Eagle being James (b ca 1794), the "free colored person" shown also in the 1830 census of Eagle twp; he m there 19 May 1825. Noah Ellis and "James Ellis heirs" [see above and below] were listed together in the Land Tax list of Pleasant twp. that year, and Noah and that James are known to have been sons of Samuel (1752-1848).

Seemingly, "our" JAMES ELLIS [ca 1765-1839] never owned land in OH; while in Pleasant twp. he worked on the 1000A owned by [Col.] Robert Higgins; see Index #88.

Among the assets of James Ellis (1787/8-1825 [GS, "Old Georgetown Cemetery"]), deceased, on 8 Aug 1825 was "a ballance of Note of ROBERT ELLIS" (Probate file #7451). That James Ellis, the s of Samuel, had m Sarah Heizer in 1811.

for $6, 21 cents, and 9 mills in delinquent taxes. Subsequently assigned by Allen and Hicks to Thomas Fiscus and George Hicks, by the latter to John Stice and Lewis Keithler, and by Stice to ROBERT ELLIS. Witnesses: Thomas L. Hamer and John H. Shepherd, J.P. (D.B. H8, 361-2).

In the 1830 census of Sterling twp., Brown co., the listing of the household of ROBERT ELLIS was on the line immediately following that of JAMES ELLIS.

On 10 Nov 1830, a final accounting of the estate of James Ellis [s of Samuel] was filed, and included these items:
$2.90 due from ROBERT ELLIS
"Paid Michael Holman ballance on settlement $2.15 made 16 Sept. 1819 for $10.00
"a ballance of Note on ROBERT ELLIS $1.96" (Probate record #7451).
The record was unsigned, but other estate papers established that Noah Ellis [another of Samuel's sons] was the administrator.

25 Oct 1841. The administrator's bond $200.00 for the estate of ROBERT ELLIS, "late of Green township", was made out in the name of SARAH [written over as LEAH] ELLIS, but it was signed, by mark, "LEAH ELLIS." As the photocopy, page 141, shows, her sureties were Dennis Callahan and Soloman Waterman, and the witness was A. C. Stewart (Probate file #7449, Brown co.). SARAH and LEAH must have been one and the same, and we have concluded that she could have been nee SARAH LEAH HOLMAN.

The wording above indicates that the widow had minor children to look after, but we have been unable to find Orphans' Court or Guardianship records.

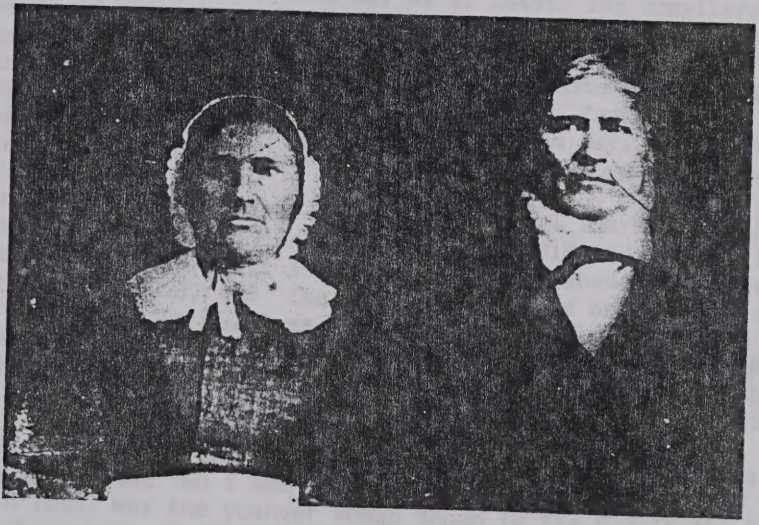
certainty by her dau, AUDRA "B" [FOSTER] BOLES in later years. The latter's son, Harold W. Boles, senior compiler of this book, knew personally a grandson and three great grandsons of ROBERT ELLIS, and perceived a strong family resemblance to the man pictured. He is convinced that the photo is of ROBERT ELLIS and LEAH [HOLMAN] ELLIS, taken ca 1840. The junior compiler, David B. Boles, has compared the photograph to one of four SLACK brothers who were pioneers in IN in the 1830's, and believes this man to have been a SLACK. The most likely SLACK would have been REASON (1803-1887), so the photo may be of him and his wife, MARGARET [JOLLIFFE] SLACK (1805-1862), the other grandmother for whom MARGARET LEAH ELLIS was named.



DESCENDANTS; Known and Possible

Census records indicate that ROBERT ELLIS had at least nine children, and we believe that six have so far been positively identified. The question mark following each of three names below indicates that the identification remains tentative until further proof is found.

The birthplaces reported for Stephen's parents agree with those reported for ROBERT and LEAH by two known sons.

2. Lucinda Ellis (ca 1821-1906). Lucinda Ellis is known to have been a dau of ROBERT ELLIS and LEAH HOLMAN, as cited under Index #22. She m Samuel Kinnett in Brown co., OH, on 6 Nov 1838 (VR).

In the 1840 census of Byrd twp, Brown co, OH, one Samuel Kinnet headed a family comprising 1m 20-30, 1m 70-80; 1f 5-, and 1f 20-30 (census, p 283). We believe the young adults were the newlyweds, and that they were living with the elder Samuel Kinnett. Three lines above was listed a John Ellis, age 30-40, and two lines above that was Elias Ellis, age 40-50.

James M. Kinnett patented 40A in Sec. 36 of Hensley twp., Johnson co., IN, in 1847 (Bergen, 1983/4, 94), and on 29 May 1849, James B. Campbell sold to Samuel Kinnett, of Johnson co., for $1000, 40A comprising the NE 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Sec 35, Hensley twp (D.B. L, 28). However, Bergen (1983/4, 94), in his plat of "Original Landowners, 1820-1850," showed S. Kinnett as owning 40A, the NW 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of Sec 36, as of 1849! The compilers of the present book have found several other instances where the deed records in Johnson co. do not accord with the plats of "Original Landowners."

As indicated above, under Index #22, 1860 census records showing the birthplaces of Lucinda's children indicate that her family moved to IN ca 1848. Others of LEAH ELLIS' family may have accompanied her, and those of her children who were still at home, on the westward move or may have followed soon after.

According to the GS which Lucinda and Samuel share in the Lickspring cem, Nineveh twp, Johnson co, IN, she was b 8 Aug 1818 and d 3 May 1906. However, her parents were not m until 1819, and the 1850 census (see Index #22) gave her age as 28 [b ca 1822], and the 1860 census gave her age as 40 [b ca 1820]. Thus, we are using "ca 1821" as her birth year unless evidence to the contrary is discovered. The GS shows Samuel as b 17 Mar 1817, d 9 Apr ~~1806~~. 1906

By 1860, Samuel and Lucinda were Fam #90, next door to JESSE ELLIS in Hensley twp, and had 1s and 6 dau, ages 2-20, all named in their census return.

3. Mary E. Ellis (ca 1822-p 1849). A female of about the proper age to have been one of the two f who were 5- in ROBERT's 1830 census return, and the f 15-20 in 1840, was the younger woman shown in Fam 533 in the 26 Sep 1850 census of Jackson twp., Brown co., OH: #331-533

LEO [sic; i.e., LEAH] ELLIS, white, female, age 51, 57 b PA [that record does not indicate whether she could read and write, but LEAH could not]

Mary E Gregg, age 26, b OH [nothing indicated under "occupation"]

Noah E ~~Gregg~~ Ellis, age 17, labourer, b OH [we believe Mary made the report and that the enumerator assumed Noah's surname was Gregg, since Mary's was Gregg; see below]

James Gregg, age 3, b OH (p 481, reel 662).

#530-532 In Fam 532, next door, John [Robert] Ellis, age 13, b OH, was living in the family of Denton Sellman, age 27, cooper, b OH (ibid.). Sellman m "Ritty Ann" Marshall on 4 Feb 1845, so the "Retta" shown in the record was not nee Ellis.

Mary Ellis was m to William Gregg in Brown co, OH, 29 Mar 1847 by [---?---] (VR, marr). 6:97 Perhaps the reason Mary was living with her mother in 1850 is found in the following items. So far, we have not found a record of divorce, nor of Mary E. Gregg's remarriage later.

10 Oct 1838. William Gragg, in Jackson twp, Brown co, OH, took a bank note valued at $3.00, belonging to Henry Biddle; Gragg was put in jail and fed bread and water for 30 days (Court Records, p 414; Donaldson, 1980).

16 Mar 1839. William Gragg and Stephen Henderson forcibly entered the house of George Bennett in Jackson twp, Brown co, OH, and assaulted him; they were put in jail and fed bread and water for 30 days (ibid, p 425).

1 Nov 1840. William Gragg, age 20, did assault, ravish, and carnally know Mary Ellen Evans, age 9, in Jackson twp, Brown co, OH. He was found guilty on the third count only, put in the dungeon of the jail, and fed on bread and water for 30 days; also was fined $150 (ibid, p 562).

4. Catherine Ellis (1824-1866). The other fem who was age 5- in ROBERT's 1830 census report must have been Catherine Ellis. "Catherine Ellis, daughter of ROBERT ELLIS, and a native of Brown County, married John Early in 1850, as the second of his three wives. They have five children: Mary E., wife of John Moore, a blacksmith of Hamersville; Martin; Hanson Lee; Melitia, wife of J. Hannah; and Olive, widow of Columbus Poe (deceased). This wife died August 18, 1866" (History of Brown, 1883, p 183 biog.). The m date was 13 Feb 1851, and the 1850 census showed John Early, age 31, as unm and with daus; Melissa, age 9; Frances, age 7; and Nancy, age 5, at home (Fam 1051, reel 662).

#1076-1082 In the 1850 census of Clark twp, Brown co, OH, Catherine Ellis, age 23, b in OH, was shown living in the household of Michael Holman, age 58. MD This is believed to be evidence that they were related. Elizabeth Holman age 53 Ky

The death year of Catherine is attested by her GS in Hamersville cem., and it adds: "She died August 20, 1866, in the 42nd year of her age."

John H. W Early John Early (11/9/1818 - 4/21/1899) is also bur in Hamersville, along with Emily L. Early, infant dau of John and Catharine, who d 2/21/1863, age 11 mo 11 da (Coletta and Puckett, 1963, 1, 294). Their other children were Mary Elizabeth (1852-1932), Martin (1853-1888[?]), Hanson Lee (1857-1885), Malita (1858-1915), and Olive Catherine (1864-) (Sue Bennett, 1990). see FGS

6? Margaret[?] Ellis (ca 1831[?]-p 1853). The f 5-10 shown in the 1840 census return of ROBERT ELLIS may have been the Margaret Ellis who was m to James Martin in Brown co. on 8 Jun 1854 by George Reed, M.G. (VR, M, 19). Since LEAH HOLMAN ELLIS and at least three of her children were still in Brown co. in 1850, it seems likely that others may have been. It may be significant that JESSE ELLIS named his firstborn James Martin Ellis just two years before Margaret married. James Martin's census returns for 1860-1880 might be helpful to descendants.

7. Noah Ellis (ca 1833-p 1869). The male shown as 5-10 in the 1840 census of ROBERT ELLIS' household almost certainly was the Noah E., age 17, who was living with "LEO" [sic; i.e., LEAH] ELLIS in Jackson twp, Brown co, OH, in 1850; see above. On 1 Oct 1853, Jacob Sibert, Clerk of Johnson co., IN, issued a lic for Noah Ellis to m Mary H. Doweney [sic; i.e., Downey?]; on 5 Dec 1853, Morgan Pitcher, J.P. of Hensley twp. certified that he had performed the m of Noah Ellis and Mary M. Doweney on 1 Oct 1853 (VR, marr; reel 66B, p 244).

On 17 Nov 1864, Noah Ellis bought 8A for $80 from Joseph Wheaton and wife Lucinda off E side of SW 1/4 of SE 1/4 of Sec 31, Nineveh twp, Johnson co; deed was recorded 18 Jan 1865 (D.B. Y, 277). That land was shown on the 1866 plat as owned by N. Ellis (Bergen, 1983/4, 100), and it was very near the 80A that JESSE ELLIS was shown as owning in 1880. There is a legend that the line between Hensley and Nineveh townships was shifted by as much as a mile at one time, but we have not been able to document that as fact.

According to the 1870 census return, Fam 188 of Hensley twp, Johnson co., IN, comprised:

Noah Ellis, age 37, day laborer, $200 personal property, b OH
Mary Ellis, age 34, b OH
James Gragg, age 22, $100 personal property, b OH

The latter undoubtedly was the son of Noah's sister, Mary E. Ellis Gregg/Gragg; see their 1850 census return, above.

As of 8 May 1992, H.W.B. tried to obtain Noah's 1880 census return, subsequent deed records, if any; and Noah's death certificate; no success.

8. William[?] W[?] Ellis CWV[?] (ca 1839-p 1879?). The 1840 census record of ROBERT ELLIS showed two males under the age of 5, and we know the identity of only one; John Robert. A strong possibility for the other is the William Ellis mentioned on p 653 of History of Brown): William Ellis was a member of the 48th Regt., Ohio Volunteer Infantry [raised from Green Township] in the Civil War.

He likely was the W. W. Ellis who headed Fam 75 in the 1880 census of Union twp, Brown co, OH. That man was a carpenter, age 41, b OH, father b VA, mother b OH [error?]; wife Mary C. was age 34, b OH, father b --, mother b OH; son Emery E. was a farm laborer, age 15, b OH; son Lorain M [no age given] (p 7). National Archives may have a service record for him, if descendants care to check.

9. John Robert Ellis (1838-1930). It was reported that the father of Dr. Ira W. Ellis [an M.D. and one-time mayor of Murphysboro, IL], > John R. Ellis, was born in Brown County, Ohio, and was reared upon a farm in Johnson County, Ind. At the age of twenty-one he embarked in the lumber business, and for some time operated a sawmill and engaged in selling lumber, an enterprise in which he was fairly successful. Coming to Jackson County [IL] in 1883, he has since made his home in Murphysboro, and is still actively engaged in the lumber business. His wife, whose maiden name was Susan Slack, was born in Johnson County, Ind., and was a daughter of John Slack, a native of Ohio and an early settler of Johnson County, Ind. (Portrait and Biographical Record, 1894, 857).

John Ellis was m to Susan A. (d/o John Slack) Slack 7 Jan 1858, Vol 1:120 in Brown co., OH, by V. M. Crabb, J.P. (VR; E, 9). Susan's family was in IN long before 1858, and later censuses reported she was b in IN. In 1850, John [Robert] Ellis was living in the household of Denton Sellman in Brown co., so Susan may have gone back there to visit relatives and found John Robert there.

In 1860, Fam 697 in Nineveh twp, Johnson co, comprised:

John Ellis, age 21, farmer, $300 personal property, b OH
Susan A. Ellis, age 18, b IN [b ca 1842, so was only 16 at m] Ira W. Ellis, age 1, b IN David A. Ellis, age 2/12, b IN
LEAH ELLIS, age 61, b KY [error] (Reel 57e, p 641).

Later census reports and her death certificate all show LEAH as b PA, so this 1860 report may indicate that her 18-year-old daughter-in-law, who probably had not known LEAH prior to 1858, reported her birthplace incorrectly.

In the directory of businesses in Newburg [later Samaria] IN in 1868, John Ellis was listed as a dealer in "Agricultural Implements;" Ellis & Slack as "Lumber Dealers," as "Millers," and as owners of a "Saw Mill" (Bergen, 1983/4,

On 22 Jan 1869, J[ohn] Ellis sold to Wm. H. Jeffries, for $700, .50A in the SW 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of Hensley twp [Newburg area]. Recorded by Jacob Peggs, Recorder, 23 Sep 1870 (D.B. 8, 28).

The 1870 census report of John Ellis showed him as head of Fam #320 in Hensley twp, Johnson co, comprising;

John Ellis, age 32, "saw milling," $500 real estate, $1100 personal, b OH
Susan A. Ellis, age 25, b IN [b ca 1845; error? See above and below]
Ira Wilson Ellis, age 10, b IN David Ellis, age 8, b IN Callie Ellis, age 6, b IN Emma Ellis, age 3, b IN

In business directories of Trafalgar, IN, John Ellis was shown as owner of a saw mill in 1880, 1882, and 1884 (Bergen, 1983/4, 249). In describing the business development of Trafalgar, the statement was made that "John Ellis & Co." operated a saw mill at various times (op. cit., 248).

John Ellis headed Fam 288 in the 1880 census of Hensley twp., Johnson co., comprising:

John Ellis age 42, lumber dealer, b OH, father b VA, mother b PA
Susan A. Ellis, age 38 [b ca 1842], b IN, father b OH, mother b OH
Ira W. Ellis, age 21, school teacher, b IN, father b OH, mother b OH
Mary C. Ellis, age 17 Mary Caroline mar. Wm. Amos Tyler
Nancy E. Ellis, age 11 Nancy Emmerine mar. George Strupe
Rachel L. Ellis, age 8 (p 34). Rachel Lucinda mar. Robert Mobley

Fam 289 comprised:

David A. Ellis, age 20, sawyer, b IN; father b OH, mother b IN Martha Ellis, age 18
Susan B. Ellis, age 2/12 (p 34).

The 1894 reference cited above provides an excellent biography of Ira W. Ellis, indicating that he m Mary Acuff, dau of Chesley Acuff, in Spencer [Owen co.], IN, in 1884. It also indicates that he had children; Cora, Callie, and Edward K. (op. cit., 857-8).

Great granddaughter Doris Tyler Harrington (1974) stated that John R. Ellis' middle name was "Robert" and in Nov 1990 confirmed that Mary C. Ellis was Mary Caroline Ellis, called "Aunt Callie," who m William Amos Tyler; that Nancy E. was Nancy Emmerine Ellis, called "Aunt Emma," who m George Strupe; and that Rachel L. Ellis was Rachel Lucinda, called "Aunt Lou," who m Robert Mobley. That source said that Callie m in Johnson co., IN, ca 1880/1 and left to go to IA, while both her sisters m in Murphysboro, IL [Jackson co.]. Harold Boles clearly remembered visiting the Ellis sisters and had, as of this writing, a snapshot of Callie and Lou taken when they visited the family of Elisha Owen Slack in Trafalgar in the 1920's.

John Robert Ellis' niece, MARGARET LEAH [ELLIS] FOSTER, her dau, AUDRA BOLES, and the latter's family took their first "long trip" in 1929, part of which included visits with the Strupes and Mobleys in E. St. Louis, IL. They must have met John R. Ellis, as Mrs. Harrington said that he d in 1930, at the home of Emma Strupe in E. St. Louis. His body was taken back to Murphysboro, where, it is believed, his wife is also buried.

Mrs. Harrington provided the further information that the husbands of both Emma and Lou worked in the sawmill, and that David A. Ellis was killed in the tornado that struck southern IL ca 1925. That may be the reason that Harold Boles vividly remembered reading and hearing, in hushed tones, about that tornado.

88. JAMES ELLIS, Jr. (ca 1765-1838) farmer

There is compelling circumstantial evidence that JAMES ELLIS Jr. was the father of ROBERT ELLIS: (1) They were both listed in the 1820 census of Eagle twp, Brown co, OH, (2) in the 1825 Personal Tax list of Pleasant twp, Brown co, OH, their names were listed together, (3) in the 1830 census of Sterling twp, their listings were on consecutive lines, (4) members of both their families intermarried with Kinnetts and Slacks in Brown co., (5) ROBERT named his first-born Lucinda, likely for one of his sisters, and (6) ROBERT's widow and some of his children moved to Johnson co., IN, as some of JAMES' children apparently did.

Census records of 1790-1830 (next page) indicate that JAMES ELLIS, Jr. was b ca 1765. Undoubtedly it was in Frederick co., MD, as there is overwhelming evidence that he was the son of JAMES ELLIS and MARY VEATCH, and Frederick co. is where they lived from 1748 to at least 1772. Those census records also indicate that JAMES, Jr. was the father of at least nine children, 4 sons and 5 daughters.

The first record mention we have found that may apply to this man was the name of JAMES ELLIS on the 1788 assessment roll of Fallowfield twp. [later Allen twp] Washington co, PA (Crumrine, 1882/1978, 645). Although the listing might have been for this man, the fact that the name of JAMES ELLIS was included only once, along with those of brothers Nathan, Jesse, and Hezekiah, led us to the conclusion that the listing was for JAMES, Sr, and that JAMES, Jr. probably still was in his father's household.

According to JAMES, Jr.'s 1790 census return, he already had one son, so he must have married ca 1788/9[?]. We suggest that he m [---?---] [?KEITHLER], in Washington co., PA, by whom he had all the children.

The first positive record of JAMES Jr. that we found was in the census of 1790, when he and his family were in Washington co., PA, as were his brothers Hezekiah, Jesse, and Nathan, and their father, JAMES ELLIS, Sr. Their five names all appeared on the assessment roll of Fallowfield twp., Washington co., in 1793 also.

In 1791, "St. Thomas' Church," the first Episcopal Church in Washington co, PA, was built in W. Pike Run twp. on a one acre site purchased for 5s from Edward West by "vestrymen and trustees" Thomas Dowler, William Crawford, Henry Gregg, John Gregg, Frederick Cooper, Jacob Springer, JAMES ELLIS, Edward Morton, Robert Kerr, William Riggs, Jacob Crabs, and John Housh (Crumrine, 1882/1978, 990). This is the earliest association of the surnames Gregg and ELLIS that we have found; see Index #45, 1850 Census.

On 12 Jun 1794 JAMES ELLIS [Jr] was one of three witnesses of a deed by grantors JAMES ELLIS and MARY ELLIS to Joseph Chester in Washington co., PA (D.B. 1-K, 31-2; Emerson, 1985, 16).

There has long been a pleasant, romantic fiction that:

> JAMES, the father, died some time after the Revolution. Then the six brothers gathered their families and substance with their mother into a boat at Fort Red Stone, and floated down the Monongahela and the Ohio to Limestone Point or Maysville, which was reached April 27, 1795. The writer of an excellent sketch of the Nathan Ellis Family in Evans and Stiver's [sic] History of Adams County gives that date and claims that five hundred Indians were encamped right across the river. It must not have been a war band, but a peace convention for considering Wayne's recent victory. We cannot admit that the > ELLIS settlements in Ohio were made until 1796. Then, five brothers started homes within the present limits of Brown county. Nathan chose the site where twenty years later he instituted the town of Aberdeen; and the mother of all, whose maiden name was MARY VEATCH, died in 1819, and is buried in Aberdeen cemetery. Jeremiah and Hezekiah stopped by Eagle Creek. The other two went farther down. James located near and above White Oak, where he started a still, but eventually went farther west [emphasis added]. The James Ellis who settled near Georgetown was a nephew of Nathan, and a son of Samuel, Sr. (Williams, 1913, 2[1], 419-20).

The 1795 date and the saga of the six brothers and their mother have been slavishly and unquestioningly repeated by several historians. However, we know that: The father and four of the brothers still lived in Washington co., PA, in 1800; JAMES, Sr., died there ca 1801; some of the brothers owned land in Ohio and Brooke counties, VA, before going to OH; all the brothers did make their ways to Adams and Brown counties, OH, where they all died; and they made their ways there at several different times. It is possible that all made an exploratory trip together, maybe in 1795, before moving west from PA.

Emerson (1985, 175-7) provided a complete transcript and thorough analysis of the above tale, and she concluded that the original version was written by Dr. Anderson Nelson Ellis and first appeared in A History and Biographical Cyclopedia of Butler County, Ohio (1882). She reported that the same man wrote the modified version that appeared in Evans and Stivers (1900). In the meantime, a somewhat different version had appeared in The History of Brown County (1883), and all were followed by the 1913 version cited above.

Certainly JAMES ELLIS Jr. did not go to OH to live in 1795, because his name appeared on the list of inhabitants of Fallowfield twp, Washington co, PA, in 1800 (Bell, 1961, 42); again in the U.S. census of Washington co. in that year (p 779). In their 1880 census reports, JAMES ELLIS' grandsons, JESSE and John Robert, both indicated that their father, ROBERT, was b [ca 1796] in VA. However, we did not find that JAMES owned land in Ohio co., VA, nor in Brooke co., VA, formed in 1796 from Ohio co., as Emerson reported that his brothers, Jeremiah and Nathan Ellis, did ca 1795-6.

Since we know that JAMES was a tenant farmer during his early years in Ohio, he may have been so wherever he was in the interim between the PA and OH records of him. Perhaps a look at circuit and chancery court records of Ohio and Brooke counties, VA, or Washington co, OH, might reveal something more about him. His name did not appear with other Ellises on the 1810 Ohio Tax Duplicate (Petty, 1976, 49-50). A man of the name, age 26-45, was in Mason co, KY, in that year, but he was still there in 1844, when he was bondsman for the m of one America Ellis to Horatio Jones (Ellsberry, n.d., 4, 28), so he apparently was not our forebear.

On 13 Jun 1801, a lengthy "Letters of Administration" document was issued in Washington co, PA, to "Iziciah Allis, JAMES ALLIS, Henry Furnier and Charles Whittachatt," of said county, binding "Iziciah Allis and JAMES ALLIS Administrators of all and singular the Goods, Chattels and Credits of JAMES ALLIS Senr deceased," under $2000 bond, to submit an inventory thereof to the Register of Washington co. on or before 13 July 1801, and an account of their administration on or before 30 Jun 1802. Emerson (1985, 254-5) provided a complete transcript, made from a photocopy of the original document, with photocopies of the signatures and seals of Hezekiah Ellis and JAMES ELLIS; she also reported that Henry Furnier and Charles Whittachatt signed and sealed [as sureties] and that John Gilmore and John [?McClancy] signed as witnesses.

On 15 Jun 1801, Jeremiah Ellis, JAMES ELLIS, Hezekiah Ellis, and Nathan Ellis signed a deed in Washington co., PA, that in essence freed their father's slave, "Black George," as of the date of their mother's death (D.B. Q1, 431); See later transcript.

Under the date of "May Term, 1803" the Recorder of Orphans' Court, Washington co., PA, included actions from an adjourned court held in July and related events of August of that year. One document recorded indicated that JAMES ELLIS and Hezekiah Ellis, administrators of their father's estate, had found the inventory and statement of assets insufficient to pay his debts and asked for a court order to sell 150A +/- in Fallowfield twp. Emerson (1985, 256-7), citing Orphans' Court Book 1, 166, provided a complete transcript.

The Orphans Court, on 5 Jul 1803, referred to JAMES ELLIS [no longer designated Jr.] and Hezekiah Ellis as administrators of the estate of JAMES ELLIS [Sr.], who d intestate (D.B. S1, 188).

The order to sell was granted, and on 1 Aug 1803, JAMES ELLIS and Hezekiah Ellis, administrators of the estate of JAMES ELLIS [Sr.], "late of the County of Washington," sold his land "called Ellisburg situate on the South West side of river Monongahela in the County of Washington aforesaid," consisting of 263A+ less what had been sold previously, to William Crawford for $1807; recorded 31 Aug 1803 (D.B. S1, 188-9).

The latest record of JAMES ELLIS found in PA was of his appearing in Orphans' Court of Washington co. in Feb 1805 as interim administrator of his father's estate, when he "exhibited an account of his Administration." Emerson (1985, 257) provided a complete transcript, copy of which is exhibited under Index #176 herein. Apparently Hezekiah had left the area, leaving the accounting of their joint administration to JAMES.

The History of Brown County (1883) said further of the Ellis brothers:

> Jeremiah and Hezekiah both settled on Eagle Creek, while JAMES and Samuel continued on down the [Ohio] river in the boat until they reached a point one and a half miles above the mouth of White Oak Creek. Here they stopped and agreed to locate. They retained possession of the boat, using it for a residence until they had erected log cabins. The cabin of James was built farther down, within half a mile of the White Oak Creek bridge. JAMES here kept one of the earliest distilleries in the county. He raised a family of children, but none of them or their posterity now live in that vicinity [emphasis added] (371-2).

Thompson (1969, 751) reported the settlement to have been near the site of Higginsport, and he said that as of 1883 none of JAMES' descendants remained in the county [emphasis added], which probably was his interpretation of the "vicinity" term used in the 1883 statement.

We believe that the JAMES ELLIS referred to was "ours," and that he built his cabin and distillery on land owned by Robert Higgins, which certainly was, in 1825, in the location [Pleasant twp] described; see below. However, it is evident that he did not settle there at the same time as his brother, Samuel.

The first record we have found of a JAMES ELLIS in OH was of his heading a household in Eagle twp., Brown co., in 1820, when the census return showed him with household members as listed in the record. He was listed on the same census page as ROBERT ELLIS and Abraham Ellis, both heads of households. As can be seen from Map 19, that twp. is not on the Ohio River, nor is it near Higginsport, but township lines probably have changed in the interim. That he was "our" JAMES ELLIS seems attested by his association with ROBERT, who had just married in Eagle twp. in 1819, and by the number of children in his family.

The other James Ellis in Eagle twp, of whom there are records for several years beginning with 1825, is shown by those records to have been black and to have m there in 1825. We suggest that he may have been a son of "Black George," who had been a slave in the JAMES ELLIS, Sr., family; see above.

JAMES ELLIS (ca 1765-1838) apparently was "for a long time" a tenant on the farm of Robert Higgins in Pleasant twp. Court records indicate that JAMES had been sued by Higgins for overdue rent and had had a judgment for $100-200 rendered against him, of which he had paid a part ca 1824. Subsequently he had been subjected to a further judgment of ca $40. On 4 Nov 1825, ELLIS agreed with Thomas L. Hamer and John J. Higgins, Ex'rs. of Robert Higgins, deceased, to let an offsetting judgment against the Higgins estate be entered on the docket of Franklin Shaler, J.P., in the sum of $39.43 plus $2.20 interest, for repairs and improvements that ELLIS claimed to have made on the farm. A stipulation that ELLIS was to be allowed to present his account later was to be included in the record of judgment.

Present compilers suggest that the "repairs and improvements" included ELLIS' cabin and distillery, referred to above. However, the judgment was entered without the stipulation, so the executors had Job Egbert, Constable, levy against ELLIS' chattels. Thus, on 8 Dec 1825, JAMES ELLIS Sr. sued the ex'rs. On 15 Apr 1826, they answered, alleging errors and untruths in his suit, and on 27 Apr 1826 obtained a new judgment against ELLIS, amount not shown in the court record (Chancery Court, 1, 793-8). Outcome is unknown.

The names of JAMES and ROBERT ELLIS appeared consecutively in the 1825 Personal Tax list of Pleasant twp., with JAMES reported as owning four cows and ROBERT two. It appears that JAMES was resident on the Higgins farm at that time.

In the 1830 census of Sterling twp, Brown co, OH, William Keithler headed a household comprising 1m 20-30, 1m 40-50; 1f 5-, 1f 5-10, and 1f 20-30. On the next line was listed JAMES ELLIS, with 1m 5-10, 1m 10-15, 1m 20-30, 1m 60-70; 2f 5-10; 1f 20-30, and 1f 60-70. On the next line was ROBERT ELLIS, with 1m 5-, 1m 5-10, 1m 30-40; 2f 5-, 1f 5-10, and 1f 30-40 (p 490, reel 127).

ROBERT ELLIS and Lewis Keithler had obtained title to their land in Sterling on 16 Aug 1830; see Index #44. We hypothesize that the parties named had just received monies from the estate of JAMES ELLIS' wife, a [?KEITHLER], as had some other descendants. Present compilers have looked in Brown co, OH, with no results, for the estate record of a female Ellis, final settlement made ca 1830. According to the 1830 census record, above, a woman of the age of JAMES' wife was still living at the time his return was taken.

Despite the claims of some earlier compilers that JAMES ELLIS (1723-1801) and all six of his sons served in the Revolution, we have not found a single shred of evidence to indicate that either JAMES (1723-1801) or JAMES Jr. (ca 1765-1838) had such service. Emerson (1985, p 399) reported a service record for JAMES, the son, but it is identical to that for his brother, Jesse Ellis, and we believe that an error was made in numbering the pension files. Furthermore, JAMES the son was too young (ca age 11!) to have entered service 1 Apr 1776, as reported in the questioned file. Therefore, we suggest that any claim to D.A.R. membership based on service of either JAMES ELLIS is invalid.

We know that on 27 Oct 1837 JAMES ELLIS' son, James [wife, Lucy], was termed "Jr." in a deed, while on 13 Jul 1838 James Ellis [wife, Lucy] had no "Jr." following his name; see below. The logical conclusion is that JAMES the elder died during that time interval.

DESCENDANTS

According to the family census records, above, we believe that probably there were nine children, four boys and five girls, in the family by ca 1807. The identities of James (ca 1790-1839), Mary, ROBERT, and Lucinda are established, and we tentatively suggest the names of three others, subject to further investigation.

1. James Ellis (ca 1790-1839). James Ellis, Jr., is thought to have been the oldest of his father's children, as a custom of the day was naming the first son for his paternal grandfather. He likely was b in Washington co., PA, where his father's name appeared repeatedly from the 1790 census to his 1805 court appearance. So far, we have not documented the family's whereabouts from 1805 to 1820, and it seems they may have been in an unknown VA location at least part of that time. This James seemingly was not included in his father's 1820 census return in Eagle twp, Brown co, OH, nor in the 1830 return in Sterling twp, although it seems he did not marry until 1835--or perhaps he m(1) ca 1815 and m(2) in 1835.

On 5 Jan 1833, one James Ellis was found guilty and fined for having assaulted Benjamin H. Gardner in Sterling twp. (Common Pleas Court Records, p 55; Donaldson, 1980, 68). Since the older JAMES would have been ca 68 years old, it likely was this younger James who was charged.

On 1 Feb 1835, James Ellis was m to Lucy Jolly in Brown co., OH, by John Meek (VR, D, 129; Donaldson, 1986, 42).

On 30 Mar 1835, James Ellis, Jr., and Lucy, his wife, of Brown co., OH, sold their interest in land [no acreage stated] in Byrd twp. to David M. Smith, of Brown co., for $300; witnesses were Andrew Young and Timothy R. Hanna; James signed, Lucy by mark; recorded 30 Jan 1836 (D.B.). To date, we have not found the deed in which James was grantee, and this sale was only two months after his marriage! We believe it may have represented James' share of his mother's estate. part of Josiah Parker Survey # 2787 m12:434

Macbeth (D.B. O14, 135). Was this all or part of the land in which James had sold his interest about a year earlier? If so, why was he buying it back?

On 18 Apr 1837, James Ellis, Jr., paid $250 to Joseph Lyne and wf Hannah Lyne for 100A+/- on Sterling fork of White Oak Creek; witnesses were Jackson Ewing and John L. [?Pungburn] (D.B. O14, 387-8). That land probably was in the part of Sterling twp. that became Green in 1838; see Map 19. Samuel Deadman Survey # 6657

27 Oct 1837. James Ellis, Jr., sold 20A+ of the above, "part of an entry made in the name of Samuel Deadman by [Survey] No. 6657," to Daniel Keithler for $70; witnesses were Hiram S. Day and James Keithler; James Ellis, Jr. signed and sealed; recorded 5 Dec 1837 by James J. Smith, J.P. (D.B. P15, 35-6).

see copy —13 Jul 1838. James Ellis [no "Jr." indicated, so his father must have recently died] and Lucy, his wife, sold 80A+ of the above, "part of a survey made in the name of Josiah Parker," to Mary Slack for $900; witnesses were Samuel Day and Amanda Jolly; James signed and sealed, Lucy signed by mark; recorded 28 Aug 1838 (D.B. P15, 486-7). This was the last of the 100A bought in Apr 1837. LHW no different surveys

8 Nov 1838. James Ellis and Lucy, his wife, sold 56A+, to Lewis Keithler IR 220 for $197; witnesses were Samuel Day, J.P., and Joseph Keithler; recorded 29 Nov 1838 (D.B. Q16, 139). ~~Where was this land located?~~ When had James acquired it? Sterling Fk of White oak crossing Indian camp, Samuel Deadman Survey # 6657

10 Oct 1839. Thomas Ross, [?C.] Day, & John Van dike [sic] appraised the estate of James Ellis at $77.25 plus and estimated $100 set off "for the support of the Widow & Children" [emphasis added] for one year (ibid.). James left only one known child; see below.

15 Oct 1839. John Allen, administrator, paid various bills for the James Ellis estate, and on 9 Nov 1839 he conducted the estate sale, results shown on the next page (ibid.).

11 Mar 1840. Thomas and Deborah Ross, of Brown co, OH, sold 33 1/4A+ to Lucy Ellis, of same, for quit claim $1. Description mentioned "part of Curtis Kendall's survey #2074 . . . to Daniel Keithler's corner line of Deadman's survey #6652"; witnesses were Samuel Day and Seth G. Wright; recorded 4 Jul 1840 (D.B. R17, 466-7). ~~Why the token price? Were the Rosses related to Lucy?~~ Sterling Fk of White Oak

David Vandike's corner

In the 1840 census of Green twp., Brown co., OH, Lucy Ellis headed a household comprising 1f 5- and 1f 30- 40; her listing was two lines above that of ROBERT ELLIS (reel 119, p 211).

7 Aug 1840. Joseph Keithler filed suit in Brown co., OH, Chancery Court charging that James Ellis, deceased, had sold him an 8+A tract of land on the Sterling fork of White Oak creek, part of Survey 6650 entered by Samuel Deadman, by verbal contract. Keithler claimed to have paid the asking price, occupied the land, and made improvements thereon before Ellis died without providing a deed. Keithler demanded that Ellis' daughter, America, and his widow, Lucy, be summoned to court [to provide him a deed]. John [?F] Higgins, sheriff, attested that he served a writ on the Ellises. Chambers Baird was shown to be the guardian of America Ellis, a minor. Lucy Ellis failed to appear, and the three Chancery judges headed by Owen T. Fishback ordered the defendants to deliver to Keithler a deed or deeds in fee simple within 30 days (Chancery Records, 6, 30-2).

23 Aug 1840. John Allen paid various bills for the James Ellis estate; ditto on 21 May 1848; on 17 Oct 1848 he filed his final accounting (Estate #7451).

On 30 Sep 1846, John Allen, as administrator of the James Ellis estate, obtained a judgment against James Keithler for $26.73 & costs, taxed at $2.60.

On 1 Dec 1846 a constable tried to execute the judgment. However, Keithler had transferred title to his land to his son, Daniel, although "said Joseph is living upon a valuable farm and tract of land in Green township." Both Keithlers were ordered into court under $1,000 bond, and subsequently Joseph was ordered to pay the Ellis estate $30.79. Since Daniel, according to the records, owed his father money, he was ordered to pay the above, plus interest, plus costs (Chancery Court Records, 8, 371-3).

Lucy Ellis' 1850 census return ~~might be very helpful, but as of 8 Jun 1993 we had been unable to find it. The return of that year for Brown co. showed Chambers Baird, age 38, lawyer, as head of household 556 in Union twp, but no America Ellis was included therein (reel 662, p 37)~~.

In the 1790 census, JAMES was shown as having 1m 16-, and in 1800 his return there were 3m 10-. In the 1820 census of Eagle twp, Brown co, OH, Abraham was listed as head of a household of 1m 10-, 1m 26-45 [self]; 3f 10-, and 1f 26-45; JAMES and ROBERT ELLIS were listed on the same page (p ~~349~~ 350). On 29 Oct 1819, she was m to James Slack in Brown co., OH, by Walter Wall, B:36 J.P. (VR). Some other compilers have claimed or inferred that the Mary Ellis of that marriage was the daughter of Samuel Ellis (1752-1848), but have offered no proof. Our claim that she was the daughter of JAMES is based on four facts: [1] She was of the proper age to have been one of the 2fwf age 10- shown on his 1800 census return, [2] there was a land sale in 1838 to Mary Slack by James Ellis [formerly Jr.], [3] the 1850 census record that follows, and [4] she mothered a son [see below] who m a granddaughter of Samuel Ellis. Thus, had Mary been the dau of Samuel, her son would have been marrying her niece.

On 17 Aug 1838, James Ellis and Lucy, his wife, sold 80+A in Brown co. to Mary Slack for $900; witnesses were Samuel Day and Amanda Jolly (D.B. P15, 486-7). Had JAMES ELLIS just died? Was the sale part of his estate settlement? Where was Mary Ellis Slack in 1840?

This biography abstract should put to rest the contention that Mary Ellis Slack was the dau of Samuel Ellis, because James E. Slack's father-in-law was James Ellis, son of Samuel, who m Sarah Heizer and d in 1825.

4. Elias[?] Ellis (ca 1794?-p 1839). Elias probably was b in Washington co., PA, where his thought-to-be father's family was enumerated in 1800, and likely was the m 18-26 shown in JAMES ELLIS' 1820 census return.

On 27 Sep 1821, one Elias Ellis was m to Anna Hair by James Gilliland in Brown co., OH; Wm Hair, her brother, was present (VR, Marr; B, 97; Donaldson, 1986, 42).

The 1830 census return for ~~this~~ Elias C. Ellis could be helpful to researchers; the one in Union twp, Brown co, OH, in 1830 was the s of Isaac Ellis, & Mary Day and he m Sarah A. Kinnett in Brown co. in 1827. 29 Mar.

In 1840, Elias Ellis was head of his own household in Byrd twp., Brown co., OH, comprising: 1m 5-10, 1m 40-50; 1f 5-, 1f 5-10, 1f 10-15, and 1f 30-40 (census, p 283). His age and the ages of the children seem compatible with an 1821 marriage.

⑧ Matilda~~[?]~~ Ellis (1803-1885). 19 Mar 17 Sept. Whether this woman was a dau of JAMES ELLIS needs to be intensively researched. We have not been able to establish other parentage for her from Emerson (1985). It appears that one of the name was m to Duncan Evans in Brown co, OH, 7 Apr 1817 (Emerson, 1985, 251). One Duncan Evans was listed on the line below ROBERT ELLIS and the second line above JAMES ELLIS in the 1820 census of Eagle twp; his household comprised 2m 10-, 1m 26-45 [self?]; 1f 16-26, and 1f 26-45 [his wife?] (p 349); did he have a son also named Duncan? Were he and Matilda the young persons, with children, who appeared in JAMES ELLIS' 1830 census return (q.v.)?

NO

Matilda Ellis d/o Samuel Ellis & Mary Frey's dau mar. John Duncan Evans 1st & George Moffoord 2nd

According to the GS of a Matilda Ellis in Sandy Springs cem, Adams co, OH, she was the consort of Benjamin H. Gardner, was b 19 Mar 1803 and d 17 Sep 1885, age 83 (Green twp. cem book, Adams Co. Gen. Soc., p 37). IF that record is accurate, and IF the woman in the cem is the ~~Matilda who m(1) Duncan Evans, then she was only ca age 14 when they married!~~ Not HER Was it just coincidence that James Ellis assaulted Benjamin Gardner in 1833? no 10[?]. [---?---] Ellis (male) (ca 1807?-). The only evidence that there was a son of about this age is that JAMES ELLIS' 1820 census return (q.v.) included 1m 10-16, who could have been the m 20-30 in the 1830 return.

a possible son Coleman Ellis b. ca 1809 OH d. 12 May 1876 ae 67-8-7 m. ① Clemenza Ellis ② Louise Heiger Ellis

Inasmuch as (1) we have been unable to find the Duncan Evans household in the indexes of the 1830 census and (2) the ages of the four youngest persons in the JAMES ELLIS household of that year "fit" with an 1817 marriage, ~~we have opted to believe that the six youngest persons were the Duncan Evans family~~, as indicated on JAMES ELLIS' census page, q.v. More research is needed.

Grandfather Hietts ancestors
Grandfathers name was Samuel

Joseph Daniels was a bro. of Mary Hiett and Isabelle Anderson, Samuel Daniels came from Virginia with Mary Hiett and her husband (Mary Hiett was Grandfathers Hietts mother and his father was William Hiett, they are buried on the Tip Martin farm.) Joseph Daniels lived at Russellville, I think Isabelle Anderson is buried on the hill above where the Old Huntington church used to stand, on the Masie Porter farm, so much for the Daniels, Grandfather Hiett was Samuel Hiett, Samuel Daniels was his Grandfather, Aug. 18th, 1946, Sallie Cooper.

by Hazel N. Lang

John Ellis was born in 1807 in Barren Co. Kentucky, son of Isaac Spencer Ellis and Martha Shipley . The family moved to Cooper County before 1820. It was John's brother, William, who first entered land in Heath's Creek Township, which John later bought and then entered, 1,300 acres more. Here he had a blacksmith's shop for making farm tools and also farmed, one of his crops being tobacco.

John married Malinda Ramey, daughter of James and Elizabeth Ray Ramey. To John and Malinda were born Martha Ann, who married William Carter: James Ramey, who married Mary G. Dillard; Isaac, Spencer, who married Lenora Scott; Mary Elizabeth Kindred, who married Joseph Dillard; Rachel Jane, who married James Frank Scott; Sarah, who married John Boyd; Benjamin Franklin, who married Mary Lawlwe; Malinda Ellen, who married James Dillard; John William, who married Willie Virginia Scott; Caroline Pamelia, who married C.A. Leftwich; and George Shipley who died when he was young.

John Ellis died at the age of ninety-two in 1898. His wife, Malinda, died in 1887, at seventy-two.

HIRAM ELLIS FAMILY

The Ellis family are of of Welch descent and were among the warly settlers of this area. Upon coming to this country, the family first located in Brown Co. Ohio and gradually moved westward until some of them located in Harrison County in the early fifties.
Hiram Ellis, son of XXXXXJohn and Hannah Martin Ellis, was born April 6, 1829 and was one of a family of 13 children, ten boys and three girls. Hannah Martin was a native of Ky. Five of the boys and two of their sisters settled in Little Sioux. Clark, a druggist; Ander, postmaster; Samuel, John and Hiram, farmers. Louella married Michael Murray, a prominent resident of the town. Eliza married William Booth, also a local young man. John Ellis died in Ohio of Asiatic cholera, and in the early fifties his widow took her children and started west. They traveled down the Ohio River, then up the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers to Council Bluffs (then known as Kanesville). Here they settled briefly before coming to this township. Hiram moved to Harrison Co. in 1871 and rented land the first year. Then he bought a farm in Little Sioux township and at the time of his death in 1888 owned 175 acres. Hiram was married to Eliza Porter on March 2, 1851, daughter of James and Mary(Pettijohn) Porter from Pennsylvania. To this union 10 children were born, four of whom died in infancy: Mary Luella who married W. H. Hope of the Hope Drug Store; Oliver, James, Hannah Belle, William C. and Margaret E., who married Dr. S.A. CALDWELL After the death of Hiram Ellis, his son, William C. continued to reside at the old home with his mother for 13 years. The estate was then sold and divided among the heirs. William C. and his mother bought a farm of 200 acres south of Little Sioux. Grandma Ellis continued to live with William until her death July 24, 1914. She and her son were faithful members of the Little Sioux Methodist Church.
Bill Ellis never married but took a great interest in the children of the Sunday School, continuing as Superintendent for more than 20 years. He was an inspiring member of the Little Sioux Band at one time, playinghis cornet. During the summer months the music of his horn floated over the adjoining farmlands as he practiced on the back porch. Those who knew heim well called him a man of high character and sterling qualities. Mr. Ellis died in Jan 1929.

ELIZABETH ELLIS BOOTH FAMILY

Eliza Ellis was born Feb. 2, 1839, the daughter of John and Hannah Martin Ellis. Their parents were among the early settlers of Brown County, Ohio. John Ellis was the son of Hezekiah Ellis of Welch descent who came from Virginia.
In 1849 John died leaving a family of 13 children, six still at home. In 1855 the mother and six children moved to Harrison County, where they made their home. Some of the boys had come west previously and were among the first settlers.
Eliza married William Booth. He died later, leaving her with five children: William, Mary, Charley, Elizabeth and Ander.
She raised her family, belonged to the Methodist Church and Ladies Aid. One Sunday, she came home from church to find their home burned to the ground. Neighbors and friends helped them. She married James Cooper and had three children: Louella, Joseph and Ede.
After Mr. Cooper died and she was 75 years old, she lived among her children until her death in 1933 at age 96.
Elizabeth Booth married Charles Bonney in 1889. He died in Council Bluffs. They had three girls, and one girl from a previous marriage whom he adopted. Soon after his death, Elizabeth moved to Little Sioux with her four girls: Lucy, Cecil, Ula and Helen, and raised them there. She was a member of the Methodist Church and charter member of the Rebecca Lodge.
Lucy married Alfred Fleming and had three children. She died in 1965 in Calif. Cecil married Earl Glasser and they had six children. She died in Calif in 1968. Ula married Harrison Stucker and they have two children. They live in Calif. Helen married Charles Terry in 1915. He died in 1931, leaving her with one child, Charles Bruce. She married Elmer Enevoldsen in 1941 and they moved to Calif. Charles Bruce Terry married Jeanne Maloney. They have two sons; Steven and Michael.

MICHAEL MURRAY FAMILY

Michael Murray was born in Kilmarnock, Scotland, May 4, 1840, the son of Michael and Mary Craig Murray. He followed a brother, John to America in 1857, coming to Harrison County. For two years he carried mail by horseback from Council Bluffs to Magnolia, then drove a stage for two years from Onawa to Shipman.

In 1861, Mr. Murray came to Harrison Co. again, locating on a claim but was forced to leave by the flood of 1862. He farmed the Sam Ellis land one year. In 1863, he drove for the Overland Stage Co. and established a trading post at a ranch east of Denver, furnishing food for Overland Stages. In 1865, an Indian uprising drove him out. In the following years he was in Cheyenne and Salt Lake City working for the advancing Union Pacific Railroad.

In 1868, Michael Murray came back to Little Sioux and farmed on land originally pre-empted by Amos S. Chase at the foot of Murray Hill, named for Mr. Murray. At one time he owned 1200 acres of land in Harrison Co. Mr Murray purchased the mercantile business of Benjamin Taber, going into partnership with his brother John and J.J. Peck, the company being known as J-J-Peck and Co. Later he bought out Mr. Peck and the company was known as Murray Brothers. The company name changed through the years from Murray and McWilliams (Leonidas) to Murray and Benney. In 1877, Mr. Murray erected a two-story building the upper story being used for the Masonic Hall. Mr. Murray dealt in grain and hogs. He purchased an elevator in River Sioux in 1887 and sold it to Updyke Grain Co. in 1897.

He was interested in civic affairs, was a county supervisor for a term, and a school director.

On April 3, 1869, Michael Murray married Luella Ellis, daughter of John and Hannah Martin Ellis. They were the parents of the following children:

Agnes married Dr. Frank E. Boyd and lived at Colfax, Iowa; Lillian a bookkeeper in Omaha; Ada worked in her father's store and later in the Little Sioux Savings Bank; John Adolph, a lawyer and District Judge in Logan; Mary, deceased; James, married Nettie Reeves of Little Sioux and had a daughter Margaret Devore of Omaha; Thomas was a lawyer in Sioux City, Iowa.

EARL A. GLASSER FAMILY

Earl Glasser was born Jan. 3, 1887 in Little Sioux, Township, in Monona County, the son of Charles Francis and Anna Lucinda Matteson Glasser. At the time of his birth their home was in "Hogue's Hollow" along the beautiful foothills a short distance north of Little Sioux. Later the family moved to a farm on the Harrison, Monona County line, northwest of Little Sioux where Earl spent his early years. In 1909 he married Cecil Marie Bonney, one of four daughters of Charley and Elizabeth Booth Bonney. Although Cecil was born in Pender, Nebr. she was raised in Little Sioux. The Earl Glasser family farmed northwest of Little Sioux on the old "Crane" place until a tornado severly damaged their home. They then purchased and operated a livery stable in Little Sioux just south of the bridge over the Little Sioux River. In the mid 1920's they constructed and operated a service station and garage in the main part of town. In the early 1930's they operated a garage and restaurant until the fire of 1935 burned a major share of the downtown area.

Earl and Cecil were both members of the Methodist Church. Earl was a lifetime member of Frontier Lodge #382 A.F. and A.M. of Little Sioux. He received his 50 year pin in 1969. Cecil became a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. Both were affiliated with the Republican Party. For a time Earl was a deputy Sheriff for that part of Harrison Co. They were in all activities of town with Homecoming being one of the highlights of the year.

Earl Glasser and Jesse Atwell teamed up to operate the steam engine which was used to cook the meat for the homecoming event.

They had six children; Phil E.; Cedric C.; Darly J.; Madelyn; Buryl and Donna Callas. In 1943 they moved to Calif. and Earl retired at Placentia, Calif. They lived there until Cecil died on Feb. 23, 1968 and Earl followed her on Dec. 7, 1969. Both are buried in the Little Sioux cemetery as are two of their children, Phil and Madelyn.

REX STUCKER FAMILY

Rex Stucker was the youngest son of Joshua Stucker and Etta Bishop. He was born in Onawa, Iowa on Oct 28, 1896. He attended Little Sioux High School and Iowa City Academy, graduating in 1915. He carried mail on the Little Sioux rural route, taking leave in July 1918, to enlist in the Naval Air Corp at Great Lakes Naval Station. Rex was discharged in spring of 1919 and resumed carrying mail, resigning in fall of 1920 to go into organized prefessional baseball. In 1923, Rex joined the Sious City Stockyards Baseball Club to play and manage; transferring to the Hanford Club in Dakota, as owner and player, selling out after 17 years. He had operated in three leagues; Nebraska, Western and Northern.

During the second World War, he joined the Internal Revenue Service, on Jan 1, 1944, retiring Nov. 29, 1963, when he moved to Sacranento, Calif.

Nov. 29, 1920 Rex married Mildred Booth, daughter of T. Wm. and Clara Niles Booth. On Nov. 29, 1970 they celebrated their 50th anniversary. To this union four children were born: Jack, Mrs. Wanda Smith, Mrs. Doralene Zamecnick, and Mrs. Claudette Nerstron, all living in Calif. There are nine grandchildren, and three great grandchildren.

Rex has been a Mason 56 years, a member of Little Sioux Masonic Lodge. He and Mildren belong to the Congregational Church and are Democrats.

HOPE FAMILY

Besides owning the Hope Drugstore in Little Sioux, William H. Hope also was a carpenter, making coffins and furniture. He was born Sept. 26, 1841 in New York State, the son of William and Elizabeth Swindels Hope, natives of England. William came to Iowa and started a drug store in 1879, was burned out a year later, but rebuilt immediately.

Will Hope was married to Luella Ellis, a daughter of Hiram and Eliza Ellis. To this union, six children were born, three of whom died in infancy. Those living were Eva, Leona and Irvin. Eva went to school to study pharmacy; she worked in her father's store while her sister went to 6ollege of Pharmacy. When Leona returned from her training she took Eva's place, while the latter married Orel Jones, a pharmacist, and they went to live in Oconto, Nebr. Irvin Hope helped in the store, too, then was employed in the Peyton Bank.

After the death of her father in July 17, 1899, Leona Hope continued to run the Hope Drugstore until she died Sept, 1944.

ELLIS-VEATCH

James Ellis was born in Wales in 1727, and died after 1785 at Redstone, Pa. He married on January 1, 1748, Mary Veatch, born in 1727 in Wales, died in 1799, at Aberdeen, Ohio. James and Mary (Veatch) Ellis came to this section from the neighborhood of Brownsville, on the Monongahela River, some sixty miles above Pittsburgh, in 1795. They had immigrated from Wales early in the 18th century and settled first Maryland, where, after spending a few years, emigrated to western Pennsylvania, where Mr. Ellis died sometime after the Revolutionary War. There is nothing to show that there were any daughters in the family.

James Ellis was a Commissioned Officer in the French and Indian Wars of 1755-1757. He also served in the Revolutionary War in Captain Adam Foulk's Company, Philadelphia Militia. He was called into actual service in July, 1777. James Ellis and Mary Veatch were the parents of six sons, all of whom served in the American Revolutionary War. They were:

Nathan Ellis, born in Wales, November 10, 1748, married Mary Walker in 1770. She was born December 1, 1752, at Redstone, Pa., and died December 1, 1812, at Aberdeen, Ohio. Nathan also died at Aberdeen in 1819.

Jeremiah Ellis, born January 21, 1752, died in 1851, married Nellie Harris.

Samuel Ellis, born October 22, 1754, died April 3, 1848, at Higginsport, Ohio, with burial in the Ellis-West Cemetery. He married Mary Fry in 1785. She was born April 11, 1760, and died June 13, 1837.

Jesse Ellis, born October 15, 1757, died in 1877.

Hezekiah Ellis was born in 1763.

James Ellis died on March 21, 1825. We have no records of his birth. He married in 1811, Sarah Heizer, born November 12, 1792, died December 1, 1880.

Nathan Ellis built the first home in what is known as Aberdeen, Ohio, and twenty-one years afterwards, laid out the town.

Samuel Ellis settled at Higginsport, Ohio, eighteen miles farther down the Ohio River.

James Ellis opened a farm near the present site of Georgetown, Ohio (Brown County).

Jeremiah Ellis bought lands near Bentonville, Adams County.

Hezekiah Ellis founded a home on the waters of Eagle Creek.

Jesse Ellis entered a tract on what is now known as Brook's Bar, along the Ohio River, three miles east of Aberdeen.

Samuel Ellis was a Sergeant in Captain Andrew Swearingen's Company of Colonel William Stevenson's Regimental Pennsylvania Line. He applied for a pension in Brown County, Ohio, March 31, 1834. Pension was granted April 17, 1834.

JESSE ELLIS

Jesse Ellis, son of James Ellis and Mary Veatch, was born October 15, 1757, and died in 1877.

In the "Tennessee and King's Mountain Papers" of the Draper Collection, Jesse Ellis, now of Adams County, entered the service in 1776 under Captain Robert Jackman, Captain Matt. Richey and Ens. Ebenezer Corry. Stationed at Holliday's Cove; in General Lachlan McIntosh's Expedition of 1778. Aided building Forts McIntosh and Laurens; out with Colonel Brodhead under Col. Samuel McCulloch, Maj. Nathan Ellis and Lieut. Thomas Stokeley. Born in Maryland and entered the service in Pennsylvania.

In Jesse Ellis' application for a pension on August 11, 1835, it is shown that, on August 1, 1779, he enlisted for six months as a private under Captain Nathan Ellis, Colonel Brodhead in Pennsylvania. It does not state they were brothers. A foot-note in the application says they were no relation, as this Nathan Ellis was from New York. Jesse Ellis' application to the Pension Bureau in Washington, D.C.: ISC-S file 8402, Revolutionary War.

His children, if any, or other domestic life, is not now known.

HEZEKIAH ELLIS

He was the son of James Ellis and Mary Veatch, was born in 1763 and died in 1853. His wife's name is not now known, but we have the names of three children. There may have been others. Elizabeth Ellis, born about 1790, in Pennsylvania; Caty Ellis, born about 1800, in Pennsylvania; and Juliet Ellis, born about 1808 in Pennsylvania.

ELLIS-HEIZER

James Ellis was the son of James and Mary Veatch Ellis. We do not have his birth date, but he deceased March 21, 1825. In 1811, he married Sarah Heizer, daughter of John and Elizabeth Heizer. She was born November 12, 1792, in Albermarle County, Virginia, and died December 1, 1880. There were seven children of whom we have the names of only two:

Lewis J. Ellis, born March 11, 1820, died January 24, 1908.

Louisa Ellis, born January 22, 1822, died November 12, 1912, married in 1848, Poleman Ellis. (See Historical Collections of Brown County, Ohio).

Ohio, Adams County August 11, 1835

Jesse Ellis, a resident of Adams County, in the 79th year of his age, declared that he entered the service of the United States in 1776, he volunteered as a soldier under Captian Robert Jackmond, then of Va., Brooks Co. and performed a tour of duty for 6 months in the Fort at Holidays Cove on the bamks of the Ohio River. We stood guard at the Fort and protected the families there, Hannah Grantham and family, Ezekiel Bursette and family, Captain Richey and family and several others.

In 1778, in the Spring, he again entered the service and served in Capt. Andrew Swearingham's Company rendezvood at Pallsburg in August and marched to the mouth of Big Beaver Creek on the Ohio River and stayed until a strong fort was erected, called Fort McIntosh.

In August 1779 he again served 6 months and went on an expedition against the Indians up the Alleghany River.

I again served (entered service) and our expedition consisted of about 300 men. We marched to the Indian town called Mausee Town and within 3 days march of the town we met a party of Indians. The company in Advance Guard commenced a heavy and fierce attack. We beat them off and killed and took 15 skelps. When we reached the Indian town we found the Indians had fled, leaving behind about 500 acres of corn, a number of horned cattle, all their horses and some hogs. We also found, sunk in a hole of water, 21 or 22 bean kettles. Under orders of our commander we laid waste and destroyed the town and burnt the corn in the field and destroyed everything and killed the horses and cattle.

He was born October 15, 1756 in Frederick Co. Maryland but served from Washington Co., Penna.

Samuel Ellis testified that he served part of the time with Jesse Ellis.
Ellis Enquirer Aug. 1979 p93 states he fought Indians not British Regulars 1774-76 + 1778

(Note: Both Jesse and Samuel served for 6 months under Capt. Nathan Ellis. A note in Jesse Ellis's pension says that he did not claim relationship with Capt. Nathan Ellis. There was no occasion for him to do so as Capt. Ellis was of another family anf came from New York.)

Brother of Samuel Ellis.

In "Tennessee and Kings Mountain Papers" of the Draper Collection Jesse Ellis, now Adams County, O. entered service 1776 under Capt. Robert Jackman, Capt. Matt. Richey and Ens. Ebenezer Corry. Stationed at Holliday's Cove; in Gen. Lachlan McIntosh's expedition 1778. Aided building forts McIntosh and Laurens' out with Col. Brodhead under Col. Samuel McCulloch, Maj. Nathan Ellis and Lt. Thos Stokeley. Born in Maryland and entered service in Pa.

In Jessee Ellis's application for pension August 11, 1835, it is shown that on August 1, 1779, he enlisted for six months as a private under Captain Ellis (Nathan), Col. Brodhead in Pennsylvania. It does not state they were brothers. A footnote in the application says they were no relation, as this Nathan Ellis was from New York. Jesse Ellis application to Pension Bureau of Washington, D. Penna.   JESSE ELLIS   [illegible]

Ohio, Adams County   August 11, 1835

Jesse Ellis, a resident of Adams County, in the 79th year of his age, declared that he entered the service of the United States in 1776, he volunteered as a soldier under Captain Robert Jackson, then of Va., Brooke Co., and performed a tour of duty for 6 months in the Fort at Hollidays Cove on the banks of the Ohio River, he stood guard at the Fort and protected the families there, Hannah Crawford and family, Ezekiel Dorsett and family, Captain Kinkey and family and several others.

In 1778, in the Spring, he again entered the service and served in Capt. Andrew Swearingen's Company rendezvoused at Pittsburg in August and marched to the mouth of Big Beaver Creek on the Ohio River and stayed until a strong fort was erected, called Fort McIntosh.

In August 1779 he again served 6 months and went on an expedition against the Indians up the Allegheny River.

I again served (enlisted service) and our expedition consisted of about 700 men. We marched to the Indian town called Mauges Town and within days march of the town we met a party of Indians. The company in Advance Guard commenced a heavy and fierce attack, we beat them off and killed and took 15 scalps. When we reached the Indian town we found the Indians had fled, leaving behind about 500 acres of corn, a number of horned cattle, all their horses and some hogs. We also found, sunk in a hole of water, 21 or 22 brass kettles. Under orders of our commander we laid waste and destroyed the town and burnt the corn in the field and destroyed everything and killed the horses and cattle.

He was born October 15, 1756 in Frederick Co., Maryland but moved from Washington Co., Penna.

Samuel Ellis testified that he served part of the time with Jesse Ellis.

Thomas Brooks

Thomas Brooks - Served three years as a private in the Virginia Continental Lines for which he received a Warrant for 100 acres of Bounty Land, dated 9 December 1788. Thomas Brooks also served as a scout in Kentucky under Col. Daniel Boone.

Thomas Brooks was born before 1760 in Fauquier County, Virginia and came to Kentucky as early as 1776. In 1777 he was appointed, with Simon Kenton, as a spy under Colonel Boone.

Thomas Brooks was one of the six trustees who laid out the town of Maysville, Mason County, Kentucky. He also signed the petition, dated 19 Sept. 1787, to have Mason County taken from Bourbon County, Kentucky, as well as one of the four men to be recommended to his Excellency, the Governor of Kentucky, as a proper person to be commissioned Inspector of Tobacco at the "Limestone (Maysville) Warehouse." In October, 1787, while this locality was still a wilderness, the Legislature of Virginia established at Limestone, the "Limestone Warehouse," for the receiving and inspection of tobacco. This was the first warehouse in Northern Kentucky. Thomas Brooks also signed the Petition in 1790 to have Maysville, Mason County, Kentucky, incorporated as a town.

Thomas Brooks died at his home near Maysville, Kentucky, on Mason Co., Ky April 15, 1800. He was buried in the old Sutton Street cemetery (now partially destroyed), located in the center of Maysville just back of the Public Library in Sutton Street. Thomas Brooks married Sarah Boone on 13 March 1782 at "Boonsborough" Kentucky. After the death of Thomas Brooks in 1800, Sarah (Boone) Brooks married secondly in Mason County, Kentucky, David Montgomery, on 9 June 1802. Sarah Boone Brooks was one of the girls who carried water at the siege of "Bryan's Station" in 1782.

SIGNIFICANCE OF SARAH BOONE BROOKS CARRYING WATER AT SEIGE OF BRYAN'S STATION, KY. AUG. 1782

Sarah Boone Brooks, daughter of Revolutionary War veteran Samuel Boone, niece of Daniel, was the 5th generation grandmother of Hallie H. Brooks Sr. (deceased St. Joe. MO 1981). Literature on Sarah's husband, Thomas Brooks, obtained from Mason Co. Historical Society, Maysville, Ky (1983) states that Thomas Brooks' wife, Sarah Boone Brooks was one of the girls who carried water at the seige of Bryan's Station, Aug. 1782. At this time, Sarah age 22, was a bride of 6 months and 4 months pregnant.

Bryan's Station was located near Lexington, Fayette Co. Ky. Thomas Brooks and Sarah Boone Brooks' first 3 children were born in Fayette Co. Ky. in the period 1783-87. Bryan's Station was a stockade 200 yards long X 50 yards wide with walls of sharp pointed logs 12' high, with locking gates and block houses at the corners. The fortress was protection for the 40 log cabins within its walls.

The evening before the seige of Bryan's Station, women had worked to prepare 4 days of meals for their 42 men who were to March to the aid of nearby Hoys Station which was under seige. As day broke, Bryan's Station became aware that they were surrounded by a hidden force made up of British and Indians. It was common during the Revolution for the British to combine forces with the Indians in a joint effort to run the settlers out of Kentucky. Battles end would prove the fact that the 42 men of Bryan's Station were outnumbered 8 to 1. The enemy was unaware that Bryan's Station knew of their impending danger. They knew that the men were planning to leave the protection of the stockade and march to the aid of Hoy's Station, so the British and Indians force was waiting for that opportune time to attack. But, Bryan's Station had a serious problem. All water had been used in preparing the meals for the march to Hoy's Station. A long seige without water would put them in jeopardy. So a bold plan was laid. Send all women to the stream outside of the stockade to obtain water. This would accomplish 2 important objectives. Replinish the water supply and convince the enemy that Bryan's Station was unaware of their presence. The plan worked, the Indians said "Leave the women alone. They will be our Squaws after the battle is won."

The enemy continued to wait for the men to leave the stockade for the march to Hoy's Station. As time passed, and they had seen only women, they became convinced that the men must have left before they arrived So, they began their attack. Their efforts were met with the fire from 42 hidden Kentucky rifles manned by the best marksman in the state, at battles end 2 Kentuckians lay dead and the British and Indians force retreated in defeat.

The full Documented story on the Seige of Bryan's Station is covered in "Daniel Boone" by John Bakeless.

Note: The Thomas Brooks story from Mason Co. Ky. states that Thomas was on of the First 4 men commissioned by the Governor of Kentucky to inspect tobacco at the Maysville, Ky tobacco warenouse. In 1983, Maysville was the world's 2nd largest loose leaf tobacco warehouse, exceeded only by Lexington, Ky.

Note: It is a well-documented fact that our Thomas Brooks line was in Fayette Co. Ky. 1782-87. Gladys Brooks' great grandfather, Benjamen Franklin Hailey, was born in Kentucky in 1811. It is believed that his county of birth was Fayette. Hailey's were in Fayette Co. by 1790.

A WILLIAM GARDNER P.O. BOX 301 LIVES IN RUSSELLVILLE - MOTHER DEAD FOR 4 YRS - HE HAS NO KNOWLEDGE

SARAH¹ BOONE, born 24 Nov., 1763; died in Adams County, Ohio, 31 Dec., 1848. She married, first, probably at Boonesborough, Ky. (a) on 13 March, 1782, Thomas Brooks (b. about 1760; d. 15 Apr., 1800); and second, on 10 June, 1802, David Montgomery (b. 20 Jan., 1772; d. 12 Feb., 1853). (b)

Sarah Boone was undoubtedly a daughter of Samuel Boone (No. 22) brother of Daniel, although information concerning her was received too late for her name to be recorded among the children of Samuel Boone and wife Sarah Day. (See page 58.)

In proof of this connection may be presented the following statements:

1. Mrs. Elizabeth Scott, youngest daughter of Sarah Boone by her first husband, stated to Dr. Lyman Draper in September, 1863, that her father Thomas Brooks married Sarah Boone, daughter of Samuel Boone, brother of Daniel. (c)

2. Mrs. Sabina Ellis, daughter of William Brooks and niece of Thomas Brooks, stated to Dr. Draper in 1858 that her uncle Thomas Brooks had married a Boone who had a brother Squire. (d) (There were only two members of the sixth generation named Squire Boone, living in Kentucky at that time: one a son of George Boone, the other a son of Samuel Boone; both nephews of Daniel.)

3. A tradition in the family of Sarah Boone is that an uncle Thomas Boone was killed at the battle of Blue Licks. A yellow time-worn paper preserved in the family bears the statement that Thomas Boone was killed by Indians and was buried at Flat Rock (now Little Rock, Bourbon County, Ky.). It is known that Samuel Boone, brother of Daniel, had a son Thomas killed at Blue Licks.

P. 11 BAKER'S "[illegible]" HISTORY

4. A descendant unfamiliar with the above proofs states that Sarah was a daughter of Samuel Boone, brother of Daniel the pioneer.

Thomas Brooks, first husband of Sarah Boone, was a well-known scout and Indian fighter. His family was from Farquier Co. Virginia. He went to Kentucky in the early days of its settlement, and with Daniel Boone, Jacob Boone and others laid out the town of Limestone (now Maysville), where he lived until his death. He served three years as a private in the Virginia Continental Line, for which he received a grant of land. (e) In Mason Co., Ky. are records of land transfers signed by Thomas Brooks and Sarah Boone Brooks in 1791.

After the death of Thomas Brooks his widow Sarah (Boone) married David Montgomery and moved across the Ohio River to Adams Co., Ohio, where she lived until her death. She was buried at Decatur, Ohio. One branch of the family has a tradition that Sarah Boone as a young girl carried water at Fort Boonesborough during the siege. If this is so she must have gone to Kentucky in advance of her parents, Samuel and Sarah (Day) Boone, who went there in 1779 and settled at Boone's Station; or else the tradition refers to Boone's Station, which was besieged in 1782. Her children were:— (b)

DEATH CERT. OF OHIO or ILLINOIS FOR SARAH MIGHT REVEAL PARENTS OHIO 1908 INDIANA 1900

In connection with the above family, it may be stated that there was a Sarah Jane Brooks, born 5 Sept., 1811, who married Abraham Bloomhuff, 19 Sept., 1832. She was probably a granddaughter of Thomas Brooks and wife Sarah Boone, although it is not known which of their sons was her father. She and a younger brother Squire Boone Brooks (born 12 June, 1813; married Hester Brance) were left orphans when small children and were reared in the family of an Ellis Palmer of Maysville, Ky. Unfortunately the children lost touch with their Boone relatives, and retained no knowledge of the family except the tradition that Daniel Boone was their uncle. They also remembered a visit from Daniel Boone in their early childhood. Both Sarah Jane Brooks and her brother Squire Brooks reared large families. The children of Abraham Bloomhuff and wife Sarah Jane Brooks were: Sydney, Mary Ann, Elizabeth, William, Samuel Ellis, Abram Wallace, Emily Jane, Franklin, Sarah Louisa, Leonard, John Wesley, and Florence Josephine, who married Carl August Miller and resides at Valparaiso, Indiana. Mrs. Miller has record of the descendants of this branch of the family.

FAMILY OF THOMAS BOONE

(This record is taken from "A Family of Millers and Stewarts," by Dr. Robert F. Miller, Frisco Building, St. Louis, Mo., Page 34.)

Thomas Boone, married 21 Nov., 1813, Eleanor Stewart (b. 1792; d. 12 Apr., 1874), daughter of Galbraith Stewart and Elizabeth (Scott) Stewart.

Thomas Boone was said to be a cousin of Daniel Boone, and was a steamboat captain on the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers. He died on his steamboat, after a few years of married life, and was buried in New Orleans. Mrs. Boone lived on in her little cottage at West Middleton, Pennsylvania, with her maiden daughter Elizabeth, until the mother's death in 1874. The house was later occupied by Mrs. Boone's aged sister-in-law, Phoebe Stewart, and her granddaughter Phoebe Acherson. Thomas and Eleanor Boone carefully preserved their small estate. To them were born four children:—

1^2 Thomas Boone, Jr., m. Annie Criss, and had seven children:—

1^3 William Boone, m. Mary Haverstock. He was in the Civil War in the 102nd Regiment, Ohio V. I., and was a prisoner at Cahaba. They lived at Montpelier, O., but had no children.

. . . I, Elizabeth Graham, of Adam County State of Ohio at present in the County of Mason and State of Kentucky . . . hereby appoint William Brooks my sole Executor giving him full power and directions to pay all my just debts and funeral expences which may be incurred at my decease.

I hereby give and bequeath unto my daughters Mary Smith Effie Crawford and Elizabeth Brookes to be equally divided between them and their heirs forever a certain tract of land containing one hundred acres lying in Adams County State of Ohio being that part of a tract lying immediately below the mouth of Brush Creek on the Ohio which was divided to me by my late husband Richard Graham.

I hereby give and bequeath to my daughters aforesaid Mary Smith Effie Crawford and Elizabeth Brookes all my personal property of every description to be equally divided between them and I do hereby revoke and annull all former wills made by me ratifying this to be my only last will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this sixteenth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and four.

Elizabeth Graham (Seal)

Signed sealed and delivered by the said Testator to be her last will in the presence of us at her request set our names as witnesses.

Jeremiah Ellis
R. 3,313
Service Penn. Va.
Born in Md.

State of Ohio)
Brown County) SS

On this ninth day of May 1838 personally appeared in open Court before the Court of Common Pleas of Brown County aforesaid Jeremiah Ellis a resident of Brown County, Ohio aged Eighty four years the 21 Jany last who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the Act of Congress passed the 7 June 1832.

That he joined the Army of the United States in the year 1777 with Captain John Wall and served under him: the name of the Colonel & regiment if his company was attached to any he does not remember. That he entered the army as a substitute for another man who had been drafted in the Militia & served under the following officers--to wit--Captain John Wall, Lieutenant John Crow, Ensign Daniel Jacobs. That he was with Sergeant of this Company and served under no officers of higher rank than Captain. That at the time of his entering the army he resided in Washington County, Pennsylvania.

The Company to which he belonged & with which he served rendevouzed on the West side of the Monongahala River in Washington County, Penn. about seven miles below Red-Stone (now Brownsville) and from thence marched to the Fort at Grave Creek on the Ohio River in the State of Virginia. This was in the months of September October & November of the year 1777. His term of service was three months commencing with the month first named & ending with the last. During all this term of service (which was three months) he was in the Fort at Graves Creek aforesaid, except the time employed in marching there & when he was sent out of the Fort to hunt and reconnoiter. And another time when he was sent down the River about a hundred miles with others out of the Fort to bring up some wounded persons from Hockhocking to the Fort & bring some that had been killed down there by the Indians. That he was in no battles.

That he was born in Frederick County State of Maryland & lived there until he was going on twenty one years of age when he removed with his Father to Washington County Penn & Settled there on the Monongahala river. That he has often seen the record of his age in his Father's Bible where it was registered but he has not that Register now & does no know where it is. After the time aforesaid had expired he lived with his Father in Washington Penn till he married in the year 1779: then he purchased land in Brook County Virginia and settled on it in 1781 then when the Land office was opened at Stubenville for the Sale of land in what is now the State of Ohio, when he sold his farm in Virginia and bought land in Ohio in Jefferson County and moved there, and resided there until the year 1807 when he removed to Eagle Creek (Eagle Creek is marked over--a.j.) to what is now the County of Brown (Ohio) where he has resided ever since and still resides.

1860 Pleas. Twp.

Oh cannot recollect what has become of his discharge or who signed it: but he thinks he received one nor can he recollect for whom he served as a substitute: he stood the draft, but was not drafted himself and went as a substitute for one that was drafted. The Company to which he belonged served with no other Company or Regiment of Regular(?) Militia or Volunteers during his term of three months, except that on the occasion before mentioned when he was sent down the Ohio to Hockhocking he thinks tho he is not quite certain some regulars from Wheeling were sent down with him & his Comrades.

*Benjm. Evans Esqr. & Wm. Middleton Esqr.(?) are acquainted with him & can speak as to his character for veracity & their belief of his services as a soldier of the Revolution.

He hereby relinquishes any claim whatever to a Pension or an annuity, except the present, and he declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of any agency in any State, or (if any) only on that of the Agency of the State of Ohio.

Sworn & Subscribed this day & year aforesaid.

*In addition to the services stated & set forth in the foregoing the said Jeremiah Ellis states that after he removed to and settled on his land in Brook County Va in the year 1781, he and the settlers of that neighborhood Forted every Summer, more or less time of a Summer, for five consecutive years Namely -- during the years 1781, 1782, 1783, 1784 & 1785, in a Fort called Ramsey's Fort on Buffalo Creek, during which time he did Military duty in said Fort and as a spy under Col. Hedge(?), Captain Fonte(?) & he thinks Lieut. ___ick(?) Hogland.

The time during which he did duty in Said Fort during said ? was exceeding in all six months, but he cannot say certainly how much more: he is certain it exceeded six months & is also certain that he did duty in said Fort the two first years named towit 1781 & 1782, exceeding three months.

Re: Ellis

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Barnett;

Was glad to hear from someone else interested in the Ellis genealogy. I have quite a lot of Ellis material & lots of the pieces of the puzzle still missing.

I am enclosing 3 family sheets. The 2 on James Ellis Sr. & Jeremiah Ellis are yours to keep. The one of James Wikoff & Rachel Ellis I would appreciate if you can add to it & return at your convenience. If there are any dates on the enclosed sheets or information that youdon't agree on or have any questions about as to where from etc., please don't hesitate to ask. There are so many Ellis's named Jeremiah, Nathan, John etc. that it is easy to confuse them sometimes.

I have about 30 or more pension papers of Ellis from Adams & Brown Co's Ohio--I will check & see if I have Colonel John Ellis's as soon as I can.

Note the missing name of Hezekkah Ellis, son of James Ellis Sr., She evidently died before Hezekiah Ellis & noone I know of has found her grave or their marriage record that I know of.

Note Jesse Ellis, Sr's wife is named - this from deed records.

Note that on James Ellis, Jr. there is much information missing. I may have some more on him in my notes, but many confuse him with the James Ellis that is buried at Georgetown. I will have to study this more. If you can help on any of these I will surely appreciate.

Also of great importance is the children of Jeremiah Ellis & Nellie Harris. To my knowledge there are only 4 known children. But note the birthdates- I784, I79I & I802 on Rachel, Nathan & Jeremiah Ellis. (I don't have any down on John) These dates make you think there were probably other children. If you have anything on these will be interested. Sure would be wonderful tofind their Bible Record.

My line is Kezziah Ellis who was born I775/79 some census she states born Va., married I4 Nov. I794 (bounty land pension applications she states [illegible] Va.) married to Stephen Sams(son of Edward Sams & Lydia __?__), Stephen Sams died I Oct. I847 in Ripley Co., Indiana. He had served inWar of I8I2-per Keziah Ellis's bounty land pension applications - from Brown Co., Ohio (this would really be Adams Co. since Brn formed after I8^{1}2) My grandmother's brother told me that he remembered his grandfather (who was born I808) speaking of an Uncle Nathan & Uncle Jerry Ellis or Sams. I know it was Ellis but can't prove what family she really belongs in. Know it not Nathan's or Samuel's. I do not believe it was Jesse or Hezekiah. This leaves Jeremiah & James Jr. or else James Sr. as her possible father.

Keziah Ellis Sams was last in 1860 census Ripley Co., Indiana.
I have found no clues in that county to date to connect her with any specific Ellis. I do have Ellis marriages from there.
A Nathan Ellis married my gr gr grandfather James Sams & his Ist wife Elizabeth McKinley. 1828 Brown County, Ohio (he performed the marriage I mean)

Now from Kesiah Sams ~~pensio~~ bounty land application-
Stephen Sams was in Captain West's regiment of Ohio Militia com. by Colonel Kees - War of 1812. was drafted at Brn Co., Ohio & discharged at Sandusky Sept. 1814. In April 1856 - date of this application Keziah was in Ripley Co., Ind. Then a John W. Games. & James Taylor of Brown County, Ohio make affidavits Oct. 1855 that they both served with Stephen Sams.-W.C. Buck Notary Public.
14 Apr 1857- a Wilson Hamer makes affidavit- Buck N.P.
Mar. 1857 - a Samuel Wilson makes the same -affidavit- Buck N.P.

No daughters have ever come to light of James Ellis Sr. & Mary Veatch. But in 1790 there were 2 females in his household. ← (Relation or names not given)

I have always wondered if Jeremiah could be my Keziah Ellis's father because he was in Va. & she stated she was married there. But she also said she was married by an Esquire Richard Talbot- who I found in 1790 in Washington Co., Pa. (as also James Ellis Sr. was). 1800 Census Wash. Co., Pa. shows James Ellis, Sr. & Jr. & Hezekiah Ellis. (so this disproves the write-up in Adams county History of "all coming together") Mary Veatch was said to have died while visiting her son at Aberdeen- I have 2 dates down & don't know which is correct??
The James Ellis who settled at Georgetown - is son of Samuel Ellis, & grandson of James Sr.

Hope this has been of some help & will be glad to exchange -if you are interested. I have been not concentrating too much on Ellis's for a while, I just couldn't seem to find enough time.

Keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Kathryn E. Miller

P.S. I always end up thinking : Father of my Keziah has to be either : James Sr. or Jr. or Jeremiah. — But oh the proof ?? And since Jeremiah was married 1779 — I believe my Keziah was born probbly (from census records etc.) before 1779 or 1779 the latest — since she m. 1794. — This then brings me back to only James Sr. ~~&~~ or James Jr. ?? -

James WIKOFF, SR. born Feb. 11,1782; died Sept. 8, 1818; married June 8, 1809, Rachel Ellis, born June 21, 1788, died June 18,1865. He inherited his father's farm on Brush Creek, Adams County, Ohio. His wife remained on the farm for a time, but could make only a scanty living, so went to her own people, the Ellises in Brown County, Ohio. He was a very religeous man, a class leader in the Methodist Episcopal Church; had been a sergeant in the War of 1812. After his death, his children were cared for by relatives, which accounts for variety of spelling of the name.

LOS ANGELES CALIFORNIA BRANCH GENEALOGICAL LIBRARY

INTRODUCTION

These records were taken from newspaper, personal, and family data. They cover a period of about one hundred and fifty years. The newspapers used were the Windsor (Henry County, Missouri) REVIEW from December 1946 to November 1951, and from the Clinton (Missouri) EYE for various dates from 1946 to 1950. These together with family data from other sources, make a valuable addition to the pioneer material of the county.

Windsor is located in the extreme northeastern corner of Henry County, and in Windsor Township. It adjoins on the North to Jefferson Township, Johnson County, Missouri; on the Northeast by Green Ridge Township in Pettis County, Missouri; on the Southeast by White Township in Benton County, Missouri. The area covered by this material is approximately 14 miles in radius from Windsor. This includes the trade area which is centered in Windsor. This fact is especially valuable as Windsor was the town to which many farmers retired and therefore it was from here that many of the old timers were buried.

In the years 1870-1873 an attempt was made to organize the four townships mentioned above into a separate county to be called Meadows County, with Windsor as the county seat. This proposal failed twice in the legislature, each time by just a one vote margin. The main objection to the organization of this new county, would be that it would cut each of the surrounding counties into an "L" shape with the new county reaching within a few miles of each other county seat.

The pioneer families of the area came as early as 1830, although no land patents were granted in this region until 1838. The majority of settlers were from Kentucky, particularly from Bourbon county, and the district became locally called the Missouri Bourbon District. This settlement was followed by a planned colony of North Carolina Baptists who settled to the west of Windsor. Then, after 1848, many German refugees settled on the prairie lands southeast of Windsor. This rich prairie land had never been preempted by the early settlers who struck out along the creeks and streams, and who cleared their small fields laboriously while the rich lands were left for the late comers. Thomas Hart Benton had told the early settlers that this prairie land was unfit for settlement. Eventually descendants of these early pioneers did purchase some of the prairie land.

When the Civil War came, people in this area were divided on the question of secession, those who favored it remained in the Union. They did so feeling either that the nation should not be divided or that they did not believe in slavery as a matter of their religious convictions. During the war about half of the population of the county removed to Texas because of their Southern sympathies.

After the Civil War many families came from New England to create large business enterprises and to invest money in the "West". Most of these families did not remain; however they came and they reared families, some even married into the families of old settlers, but for the greatest part these later comers moved on west to California or died out altogether.

IN MEMORIAM

RAY K. ELLIS

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. — he is just away!

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.

And you — O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,-
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There, as the love of Here;

Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead — He is just away!

Ray Kenton Ellis, son of Edgar Thomas and Isabelle Shell Ellis was born near Bentonville, Adams County, Ohio, November 28, 1902, and passed to his reward April 21, 1972 at the age of 69 years, four months and 23 days. He had been a patient for several months in the Adams County Hospital, West Union, Ohio.

On February 14, 1923, he was united in marriage to Margaret Ellis, and to this union was born one son, Edmund Ray Ellis, who has been associated with his father at the Ellis Funeral Home.

He is survived by his wife, one son, one brother, Earl Ellis of West Union, Ohio, Route 3; a daughter-in-law Sarah Haag Ellis; a granddaughter Miss Sally Anne Ellis, two aunts, one uncle and several nieces, nephews and a host of friends. His parents preceded him in death some years ago.

All of his life was spent in this vicinity where his friends were numbered by his acquaintances. Because of his kindness, friendship, and willingness to be of service to all those with whom he came in contact he will be sadly missed.

Ray was one of Adams County's outstanding Funeral Directors, respected by all who knew him. Of a pleasant disposition, he went among his family and friends, doing anything he could to make the way a little brighter and burdens a little lighter.

He was a member of the Christian Union Chruch at West Union, Masonic Lodge No. 43, a 32nd Degree Mason, Odd Fellows Lodge No 570 and Jerusalem Grange.

The Plan of the Master Weaver

My life is but a weaving
Between the Lord and me,
I may not choose the colors,
He knows what they should be:
For He can view the pattern
Upon the upper side
While I can see it only
On this, the under side.

Sometimes He weaveth sorrow,
Which seemeth strange to me;
But I will trust His judgment,
And work on faithfully;
'Tis He who fills the shuttle,
And He knows what is best.
So I shall weave in earnest,
Leaving to Him the rest.

Not till the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why—
The dark threads are as needed
In the weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many relatives, friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown to us. Also to Rev. Mills and Rev. Potts for their comforting words, and to any one who helped in any way during our sorrow.

Most of the above data on the JAMES A. ELLIS family was contributed by a cousin, Alvin ReRoy Cooper. In an accompanying note, Mr. Cooper states that the above list is incomplete at this time. Mrs. Ark, (Dorothy Ellis) has in her possession the Bible originally owned by the now deceased Minni (Cooper) Ellis.

Later information received from Mr. Cooper that he has found a letter writ ten to him in I965 by his cousin, Sarah (Ellis) Grody, of Dayton, Ohio, saying that she has three children--one son, and two daughters, nine grand children, and three great grand children. No names mentioned.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in Chancery sitting in and for Brown County Ohio

Humbly Complaining, your Orator William Gilbert of said County respectfully represents unto your Honors, that on the 25th day of December 1817, one Nathan Ellis since deceased having given up lot No. 101 in the town of Aberdeen, then of Adams County but now of Brown County Ohio, to Robert Dobyns the Collector of the tax of Adams County for the said year 1817 to be sold by said Dobyns, the said Ellis bound himself, his heirs, executors or administrators to make a general warranty deed for the said lot to the purchaser when called on by him, as will more fully appear by the agreement of the said Ellis with said Collector under seal herewith filed and prayed to be taken as part of this bill. Your Orator further represents unto your Honors, that afterwards towit on the same day and year aforesaid the said Dobyns Collector as aforesaid exposed said lot No. 101 which had been given up to him as aforesaid and sold the same, which was purchased by your Orator and the purchase money fully paid therefor to said Collector all of which will appear by the endorsement on said agreement under seal and is also prayed to be taken as part of this bill. Your Orator further represents unto your Honors that he, having made the purchase aforesaid, made application to the said Nathan Ellis and requested him to make a deed for said lot as he had agreed by his contract aforesaid and at different times until said Nathan Ellis, death, requested him in the most friendly manner to make him a conveyance of the said lot, that the said Ellis always promised to convey but still put it off from time to time and so entirely neglected to make any deed to your Orator. Your Orator further represents unto your Honors, that on or about the   day of 1819, the said Nathan Ellis departed this life, leaving children heirs and legal representatives namely Jeremiah Ellis Samuel Ellis, Jesse Ellis, Nathan Ellis, William Grimes and Nancy Grimes his wife late Nancy Ellis, James Higgins and Nelly
Abraham Evans and Mary Evans his wife late Mary Ellis
Higgins his wife late Nelly Ellis all children of said Nathan

Ellis deceased; and John Ellis since dead leaving a widow
Keziah Ellis and children namely Clayborne Ellis, Mary
Ann. Ellis, Brooks Ellis, John Ellis, Sarah Ellis, Jeremiah Ellis and Wilson Ellis (all of whom are prayed to be made defendants he to whom said lot descended. Your Ora further states that immediately after he purchased said lot from the Collector Dobyns as aforesaid, by permission and consent of he took it into his possession and has retained the possession and paid the taxes upon it ever since, that the lot has been improved and is now greatly enhanced in value.
Your Orator further represents unto your Honor that since the death of said Nathan Ellis he has frequently applied to defendants and requested them specifically to perform the contract so made by the deceased as aforesaid.
And your Orator well hoped that said Defendants wo have complied with such your Orators reasonable requ as in justice and equity they ought to have done. Bu now so it is &c. the said Defendants combining and con-federating to and with one another and divers other persons at present unknown to your Orator (who, when ascertained, are also prayed to be made defendants) are endeavoring to injure and oppress your Orator in the premises and trying how to defraud and cheat your Orator neglect to execute the contract aforesaid, and when applied to by your Orator for a deed, keep putting him off and state that it may be attended to at some other time, and sometimes peremptorily refuse to perform said agreement and execute and deliver a deed to your Orator according to said agreement an and the true intent and meaning thereof. In tender cons eration whereof and forasmuch as, your Orator is remediless in the premises in and by the strict rules of the Common law and cannot compel a specific performance of said agreement but by the aid and assistance of this honorable Court where matters of this nature are properly cognizable and relievable; To the end therefore, that the Defendants (and their Codefendants when discovered) may, upon their corporal oaths, true direct and perfect answer make to all and singular the allegations and matter herein Stated and as fully and particularly as if the same were herein again repeated and interrogated and that the said Defendants may be compelled to a specific execution of said agreement and may execute and deliver to your Orator a warranty deed for Lot No. 105 in Aberdeen aforesaid in accordance with said agreement and the true intent and meaning thereof, and that your Orator may have such other and further relief in the premises as the nature of the case may require, and may it please your Honors to grant to your Orator your most gracious writ of Subpoena directing &c. commanding &c. as in duty bound he will ever pray &c.

prospects of future happiness [illegible] him onward in the path of being, he has fallen; gon down to slumber in the land of unbroken silence, where so many of earth's toil-worn and sorrowing millions find at last a refuge and a home. But he died not unmourned. Acquaintances and friends stood round his bedside, and ministered to his wants, and sympathize with him in his protracted and painfu sufferings, the kind voice of affection and love cheered him amid the terrors of dissolution, and now mourn his premature death. But there is one bosom that knows no comforter, one heart rent and torn with the pangs of anguish, from whose shattered strings there goes forth the low sad tones of deep and unavailing sorrow. In the low grave of her souls? idol lie buried al her earthly hopes, and the shadows of deep and holy memories are resting like the wing of death upon her brow. But the sanctuary of grief is sacred; we would not penetrate its recesses nor attempt to still the throbbings of a broken heart, with the harsh voice of earthly sympathy. May the bright ministers of peac ever attend her here, and bear her sorrowing spirit to a more befitting sphere where all is purity and love.

When backward through departed years,
On memory's wing we stray,
How oft we find a source of tears,

William Gilbert,
VS. } IN CHANCERY
Nathan Ellis' heirs,

BROWN COUNTY, SS.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that heretofore, t wit; on the 4th day of March, 183 the Complainant filed his bill in Chancer setting forth among other things, that Na than Ellis, since deceased, did on the 25t of December, 1817, in his life time, exe cute a title bond to the Complainant, fo the conveyance of lot No. 101, in the tow of Aberdeen, then in the county of Ad ams, now Brown; that said Ellis died with out having executed any deed of convey ance; that the whole of the purchase mon ey has been paid, and that he is entitled t a conveyance from the heirs and legal rep resentatives of said Nathan Ellis, for sai lot. The prayer of the Bill is, that the heirs may be compelled to convey, and fo general relief.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that Clayborn Ellis, Mary Ann Ellis and Jeremiah Ellis jr. are non residents of this state; the Court order that notice of the pendency and prayer of the petition be publisded in the Castigator and Democratic Expositor, a newspaper printed in said county,—six weeks in succession, previous to the next term of this Court.
